

Gerontology Minor Assessment Timeline

Key Student Learning Outcomes	To be assessed in
Demonstrate an understanding of the aging processes, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• the interdisciplinary nature of human aging• demographic changes• diversity in later life	2009
Demonstrate a knowledge of gerontological theory, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• the various models and theories in gerontology• the practical implications of theories in gerontology• ways of evaluating gerontological research and theory	2010
Experience professional life and prepare for a career in aging, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• awareness of professional opportunities in gerontology• understanding professional methods and ethics	2008