

History Department Graduate Student Learning Outcomes

- a) Knowledge of content in American, European, and non-Western History
- b) Knowledge of the interpretative and multi-disciplinary nature of history
- c) Ability to think critically
- d) Ability to do historical research
- e) Ability to communicate in writing and verbally
- f) Awareness of and appreciation for cultural difference

Assessment Timetable History Department Graduate program

The department plans to go through the six student learning outcomes at the rate of two per year, utilizing select courses and then repeat the process.

- a) Knowledge of content in American, European, and non-Western History
- b) Knowledge of the interpretative and multi-disciplinary nature of history
- c) Ability to think critically
- d) Ability to do historical research
- e) Ability to communicate in writing and verbally
- f) Awareness of and appreciation for cultural difference

SLO a and b.

2008 report

- Graduate MA Public History Hist 670 Local History

SLO category c and d

2009 report

- Graduate MA Hist 610 Historical Methods
- Graduate MA Public History Hist 610 Historical Methods, Hist 671
- Graduate MS Hist 610 Historical Methods

SLO category e and f

2010 report

- Graduate MA Hist 699 Thesis

SLO a and b.

2011 report

- Graduate MA Public History Hist 670 Local History, MS Exit Examinations