Baseball 2005

2005 Husky Baseball Outlook

With 15 returning letterwinners, including six starters, the 2005 edition of the St. Cloud State University baseball team will put more experience on the field. After posting a 14-35 overall record and finishing the North Central Conference with a 7-21 (8th) record in 2004, the Huskies will be looking to improve their standing.

St. Cloud State returns seven pitchers and six position players in 2005. Leading the way among the returnees is junior co-captain Nate Swan (Sauk Rapids). Swan was a 2004 All-NCC second team selection. In 2005, he will play a versatile role for the Huskies at first base, third base, outfield and pitcher. Swan hit .351 last season and started at third base in 42 games. "The versatility of Nate Swan will be very important to us in the new year," said head coach Denny Lorsung.

Four starters return on the infield for the Huskies. Swan, at third base leads the way. Sophomore Dan Skog (Anoka) will start at shortstop. He started 44 games last season and hit .282. He led the team in walks with 15 and stolen bases with eight. Junior Noah Czech (Little Falls) will see some playing time at shortstop. He played in 28 games last season, started in 15, and hit .267. He also had eight stolen bases. Sophomore Bobby Gregoire (Maple Grove) is a returning starter at second base. He started 40 games last season. Senior Kevin Macdonald (London, Ont.) will find playing time at second base. He made 18 starts last season and had 55 plate appearances. Junior Travis Thompson (Rice Lake, WI) is the returning starter at catcher. Thompson caught and started in 41 games last season. Two other players could provide relief for Thompson in 2005. First year Brandon May (Wayzata), a transfer from Liberty University, and junior Reid Weber (St. Michael) are listed as back-ups to Thompson. Weber saw some limited playing time last season. First year player Luke Klitzke (Hutchinson) will get the nod at first base with Swan filling in as a back-up. Overall the infield is expected to be very strong defensively. "We will need to pick up our offense and find a back-up to Travis (Thompson) at catcher," Lorsung said.

Coach Lorsung is looking to see improved play both offensively and defensively from his outfield in 2005. Sophomore Gary Kiess (Cold Spring) will start in center field. Kiess played in 40 games last season, starting 38, and hit .264. Senior co-captain Ryan Kapsner (North Mankato), first year player Mark McGuire (Crystal), junior Darrin Shroyer (Brooklyn Park), if healthy, will compete for the starting spot in left field. Kapsner played in 34 games last season and made 28 starts. Shroyer played in 21 games. Sophomore Kyle Johnson (Prior Lake), first year Dave Carlson (St. Joseph), and redshirt freshman Ryan Tschida (Long Prairie) will compete for the starting position in right field. Johnson played in 17 games last season. Nate Swan could move into the outfield if needed. "Offensively, there is some power and some speed in our outfield this season," said Lorsung.

With seven returning pitchers, the pitching staff should be strong in 2005 for the Huskies. Junior Mike Hoelscher (Alexandria) made ten starts last season and posted a 4-5 record with a 3.45 ERA. He pitched 57 innings. Senior captain Chase Nelson (Pequot Lakes) made a 12 appearances, pitched 38.2 innings and posted a 6.05 ERA. Left handed junior Jeremy Liebherr (Greendale, WI) made seven appearances with five starts. Sophomore Darrin Haala (Sleepy Eye) made nine starts, pitched 41.0 innings, and posted a 2-5 record with a 6.15 ERA. Senior Nate Larson (Sauk Rapids) made six starts and threw 32 innings. Left handed sophomore Ryan Carlson (Moundsview) went to the mound seven times and made four starts. Sophomore Adam McGrane (Plymouth) made the most appearances of the staff with 13. He posted a 2-2 record in 27.2 inning pitched with a 4.88 ERA. Junior Matt Means (Brainerd) saw limited playing time last year but has gained some experience. The all-around player Nate Swan, will also pitch during the 2005 season. Four new pitchers will add to the mix this season. First year players Andy Graf (Richfield), Jim Smith (Rice Lake, WI) and Bruce Thompson (Maplewood), along with sophomore Josh Hadley (Sleepy Eye), a transfer from Ridgewater Community College will proved depth on the mound. "Our pitching should be strong, as our pitchers gained valuable experience last year. Now it's a matter of putting that experience to use," Lorsung said.
