2009-10 SCHEDULE

ST. CLOUD STATE MEN'S BASKETBALL

FINAL FOUR MADNESS: The St. Cloud State men's basketball team finished the 2009-10 season with a school record 29 wins before bowing out 76-70 in the Final Four against Indiana University of Pennsylvania Thursday, March 25 in Springfield, Mass.

The Huskies could not bounce back from an early first half 15-point deficit as the No. 3 ranked Crimson Hawks held on after a late St. Cloud State run. Senior All-American Matt Schneck (Whitefish Bay, Wis.) finished his career with one of the top performances in this year's tournament with his 23rd double-double of the season. He ended his last game in a Husky uniform with a game-high 29 points, while grabbing a tournament high 17 rebounds.

St. Cloud State had a slow start to the first half of play, making two of their first 15 shots to trail 19-6 half way through the half and finished the first half shooting 25 percent from the field, while the Crimson Hawks made 43.8 percent of their shots attempted. Sophomore Brett Putz (Forest City, Iowa) then came off the bench to make a crucial lay-up off an offensive rebound to tie the game at 64-64 late in the second, but IUP had an answer for every St. Cloud State basket down the stretch, including the next play, as Kevin Stewart hit his third three pointer of the game at the shot-clock buzzer to break the tie at the 2:55 mark to help hold off the Huskies late game flurry.

ELITE EIGHT MAGIC: Behind one of the top performances in Elite Eight history from junior Taylor Witt (Morris), St. Cloud State won the first Elite Eight game in school history Wednesday, March 24. Witt scored a career high 43 points, with 38 coming in the second half to torch Midwestern State University in a 92-88 victory.

St. Cloud State rallied from a 45-39 have time deficit, which was the third highest all season for the Huskies, as head coach Kevin Schlagel was able to make crucial substitutions down the stretch with three starters in foul trouble. All-American senior Matt Schneck (Whitefish Bay, Wis.) was also strategically substituted throughout the final minutes of the game and finished with his 22nd double-double of the season with 16 points and 13 rebounds. Sophomore Theo Rothstein (St. Michael) had four fouls down the stretch but helped the Huskies play a tough help-out defense in the second half, while grabbing a career high eight rebounds to go with 10 points.

 HEAD COACH KEVIN SCHLAGEL

Kevin SCHLAGEL

Head Coach
13 Seasons
St. Cloud State

Kevin Schlagel has been associated with the St. Cloud State basketball program for much of his adult life, first as a player, followed by 18 years as the top assistant, and then in 1997 being named the head coach of Husky Basketball.

Husky basketball has had a steady presence in the upper Midwest and more recently on the national scene. During the 2009-10 season, St. Cloud State produced the most successful season in its history. The Huskies won a school record 29 games and advanced to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight Final Four.

To get there, St. Cloud State posted a 16-4 record in Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference (NSIC) games to finish second in the league standings. The Huskies went on to host the NSIC/Sanford Health Men's Basketball Tournament, won the title with wins over Concordia-St. Paul, Wayne State, and Southwest Minnesota State. The NSIC tournament championship was the second straight for the Huskies and automatically put the team in the NCAA Division II Central Region Tournament.

Three wins later the fourth seeded Huskies captured the Central Region title with wins over Metro State, Minnesota State, Mankato, and an overtime thriller, 84-75 over Augustana College in the Championship game.

They were on their way to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight in Springfield, Mass.

The Huskies won their quarterfinal match-up over Midwestern State (Texas) University, 92-88, behind one of the greatest Elite Eight performances by an individual player. Junior guard Taylor Witt scored 43 points, 38 in the second half and made 22 of 23 free throw attempts to carry the Huskies into the Final Four. The season came to an end on March 25 in a nationally televised loss to Indiana (Pa.), 76-70 in the semi finals.

It is appropriate that Schlagel became the winningest head coach in St. Cloud State men's basketball on Feb. 21, 2009 when he captured his 232nd career win in an 80-74 win at Minnesota, Crookston.

His pride in SCSU basketball is evident in his successful background and displayed by the way in which he has led the program year after year. Schlagel's teams have won 17 or more games 12 times during his 13-year tenure and have been 20-game winners on seven occasions.

Since Schlagel was named head coach at SCSU, the Huskies have compiled a 266-118 overall record. Along the way, SCSU has won a North Central Conference regular season title in 2002-03 (the first since the Huskies' triple crown in 1986, 1987 and 1988), has been selected for NCAA tournament play seven times since 2000 (2000, 2001, 2003, 2006, 2007, 2009, 2010), and the Huskies won the NCC Wells Fargo Finals tournament twice in the tournament's five-year history.

During the 2008-09 season, St. Cloud State's first as a member of the NSIC, Schlagel's squad finished third in the regular season and went on to claim the 2009 NSIC Sanford Health Tournament Championship and an automatic bid to the NCAA tournament.

In NCAA tournament games, Schlagel's troops have advanced to the regional finals in 2001 and won the region title in 2010, and also collected a first round win in 2003. In addition, his players have consistently been recognized for excellence throughout his tenure.

During the 2009-10 season, senior Matt Schneck won nearly every honor possible as he led the Huskies to the Final Four. He was named the NSIC Player of the Year, First Team All-NSIC, the NSIC/Sanford Health Tournament MVP, Central Region Tournament Most Outstanding Player, NABC All-District First Team, and Daktronics All-Central Region First Team. He culminated his career by being named to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight All-Tournament Team and three All-American Teams, as he was an NABC and Division II Bulletin First Team All-American and Daktronics Third Team All-American.

For four straight years and five times since 2000, a Schlagel coached player has been named the NCC Defensive Player of the Year. In 2005, outgoing senior Steve Trull earned the honor, following in the footsteps of Alex Carlson (2004) and Jason Kron (2000, 2002, 2003).

In addition, the Huskies have gained several other league honors as Forrest Witt was named the MVP of the Wells Fargo Finals in 2001 and 2003. Witt's younger brother Taylor, continued the tradition winning MVP honors in the 2009 NSIC Sanford Health Tournament. In the 1998-99 season, Rado Rancik was voted the NCC Freshman of the Year. To complete the scene, in 1997-98 Jon Hinzman earned All-America and NCC Most Valuable Player honors.

2009-10 St. Cloud State Men's Basketball

During the 2009-10 season Matt Schneck set a new standard as he was named to three All-American teams (First Team NABC and DII Bulletin/Third Team Daktronics), was named the 2010 Player of the Year in the NSIC, the MVP of the NSIC/Sanford Health Tournament, the Most Outstanding Player of the Central Region Tournament, and was named to the Elite Eight All-Tournament team.

An assistant coach for former head coaches Butch Raymond, Sam Skarich and Noel Olson, Schlagel has been on the coaching staff at St. Cloud State since 1980.

He started his association with the SCSU program in 1972 as a player for Olson. As a senior, Schlagel helped guide SCSU to a Northern Intercollegiate Conference title in 1975-76.

Following his graduation in 1976, Schlagel was the head basketball coach at Shellsburg (Iowa) High School from 1977-80. He returned as an assistant to Olson and has since been a vital member of the Husky coaching staff since 1980 - including an 11-game stretch in 1983-84 when Schlagel served as the interim head coach.

As an assistant to Raymond, Schlagel was part of SCSU's triple crown in the North Central Conference as the Huskies won three consecutive conference titles from 1985 to 1988. The Huskies posted a 76-15 record during those three campaigns and also advanced to the NCAA Division II playoffs in each of those seasons. In 1986-87, the Huskies advanced to the quarterfinal round of the NCAA playoffs for the first time in school history.

Schlagel believes his tenure at SCSU has provided him with the experience necessary to be successful as a collegiate head coach.

"I have had a great experience at St. Cloud State," Schlagel noted, "I have learned a lot about basketball from the coaches I have worked with and one of those things is to have fun within the game."

"Our goal every season is to win a conference title and qualify for the NCAA playoffs. In order to accomplish those goals, the first step is to play to our potential every time we hit the court. I want our players to know that when we walk into the locker room after the game, we gave our best effort."

Schlagel hopes to build on the success that made SCSU one of the elite programs in the NCC, as they begin their tenure in the NSIC. His game plan will center on an up-tempo style of play - one that has been a trademark of Husky basketball.

"We like to be up-tempo and aggressive in our style of play," Schlagel said. "On offense and defense, we will be looking to force the action as much as possible."

To fill his roster each season, Schlagel will be looking for talented well rounded student-athletes.

"When it comes to recruiting, we will be looking for quality student-athletes who have demonstrated good citizenship throughout their high school and collegiate careers."

A native of Rush City, Minn., Schlagel played basketball and baseball at Rush City High School. Schlagel and his wife Pam reside in St. Cloud. Daughter Leah is a student at St. Cloud State.

*Team Captain

Head Coach: Kevin Schlagel (St. Cloud State), 13th season

Assistant Coaches: Matt Reimer (Central College), 13th season, Cory Schlagel (St. Thomas), 7th season, Andrew Cone, (South Dakota State), 5th season.

Game Notes

ELITE COMPANY: The Huskies set a school record for wins in a season with 29 in 2009-10. Only three teams in school history have recorded a more than 26 wins in a season and only seven times has a squad recorded 25 victories.

KINGS OF SWAT: Junior Andrew Bernstetter (St. Joseph) is the all-time blocks leader at St. Cloud State, passing Jon Hinzman (1994-98) at 115 for the record and now has 124 in his career. As a team, the Huskies recorded a school record 159 blocks on the season and led the NSIC with 4.89 a contest.

ONCE IN A LIFETIME PERFORMANCE: Witt went off for the fourth highest scoring total in an Elite Eight game with 43 points, including 38 in the second half Wednesday night. He also set a NCAA tournament record with 22 free throws made and 23 attempted. Witt's 43 points were the third highest in school history, after scoring just five points in nine minutes of play in the first half. The 22 made free throws were a school record, passing Roger Westlund who made 20 in 1954. The last time a player scored 43 points in an Elite Eight game was when Jack Sullivan of Mount Saint Mary's scored 43 in 1957.

POST SEASON ACCOLADES:

Senior captain Matt Schneck (Whitefish Bay, Wis.) was named NSIC Player of the Year, NSIC tournament Most Valuable Player, Central Region tournament Most Outstanding Player, NABC All-American, Daktronics third team All-American, and was an Elite Eight All-Tournament team member. Junior Josh Ortmann (Buffalo) was also named to the All-Central Tournament Team with Schneck. Witt was also named to the Central Region All-District team by the NABC. Witt was named to the six member First Team. This is the second year that Witt has been honored by the NABC as he was a 2009 Second Team member. He was then named to the Elite Eight All-Tournament Team.

REGIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP:

St. Cloud State became the second team in school history since the 1986-87 Huskies to advance past regional play and first team to make it past the NCAA quarterfinals with a 92-88 win over Midwestern State University.

TOURNAMENT RUN: The Huskies won seven straight playoff games this season before losing Thursday. St. Cloud State also won 16 of the last 18 games this season and finished 13-2 in non-conference games.

MOVING UP THE RANKS: Schneck finished his career by moving up two spots to No. 4 on the all-time scoring list at St. Cloud State with 45 points in Elite Eight Play. He ends his time at SCSU with 1,608 points in his career. He passed Reggie Perkins (1984-88) and Joel McDonald (1991-95) while in Springfield, Mass.

2010 NSIC/Sanford Health Tournament Back-to-Back Champions!

MAR. 3, 2010: In a back and forth battle in the first round of the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference/Sanford Health men's basketball tournament, No. 24-ranked St. Cloud State finished strong in a 76-61 win over Concordia University, St. Paul in Halenbeck Hall.

The Huskies led by as many as 10 points in the first half, but the Golden Bears chipped away to take a 39-38 lead early into the second half. St. Cloud answered with a 13-5 run over the next six minutes to take another double-digit lead.

From that point, the Huskies ended Concordia-St. Paul's season by making clutch plays and 14 of 15 free throws down the stretch to earn their 13th straight home win. The Huskies went on to finish the night making 25 of 26 shots from the charity stripe.

Senior captain Matt Schneck (Whitefish Bay, Wis.) added his 16th double-double of the season to lead all players with 24 points and 14 rebounds. Schneck made 10 of 11 from the free throw line.

Junior Andrew Bernstetter (St. Joseph) scored 18 points, grabbed seven rebounds and blocked four shots in an all-around solid night, while junior captain Taylor Witt (Morris) scored 13 points and recorded eight assists.

MAR. 6, 2010: St. Cloud State put together a late-game run to beat Wayne State College 74-66 in the semifinal round of the NSIC/Sanford Health tournament.

With the win, the Huskies earned a bid to their second straight conference tournament championship game and a 14th straight victory in Halenbeck Hall.

The Huskies trailed 62-61 with 2:48 to go in the game, but put together an 11-2 run over the next 2:20 to end the Wildcats' season.

The Wildcats put together a tough half court zone, that produced 13 Husky turnovers, but St. Cloud State was able to make clutch shots down the stretch to put away Wayne State. The Huskies shot a season-high 61.2 percent from beyond the arc, including a 5 for 6 second half.

Witt put together his second double-double of the season with a game-high 21 points, while tying his career high with 10 assists. He surpassed his brother Forest Witt (1998-03) for the number 10 spot on the St. Cloud State all-time assists chart with 338 assists in his career.

Schneck put together a strong second half to earn his 17th double-double of the season with 15 points and 12 rebounds.

MAR. 7, 2010: Down one point with 2.3 seconds to go in the NSIC/Sanford Health tournament championship, Witt buried two free throws to claim St. Cloud State's second straight conference tournament title with a 68-67 win over Southwest Minnesota.

The Huskies (25-5) put together their 15th straight win in front of the home crowd to earn an automatic bid to the NCAA Central Regional tournament.

The Mustangs took their first lead of the game at 47-46 with 9:30 to go in the game, and from that point both teams battled though 16 lead changes and five ties to set up a wild last minute finish.

Junior Andrew Bernstetter (St. Joseph) hit a clutch go-ahead jumper from a step inside the three-point line with 30 seconds to go in the game to take a 66-65 lead.

After two SMSU free throws to take the final lead of the game at 67-66, Witt, who was also named to the NSIC All-Tournament team then took the ensuing in-bounds pass and dribbled the ball all the way to the Huskies' free throw line where he was fouled to set up the game-winning free throws.

Schneck finished the game with his 18th double-double of the season with 16 points and a game-high 14 rebounds.

Witt tied a game-high with 18 points and dished out three assists in all 40 minutes of end-to-end action.

2010 NCAA Central Regional Tournament Champions!

MAR. 13, 2010: St. Cloud State made clutch plays down the stretch to hold off an athletic Metropolitan State University squad 82-77 Saturday night in the first round of the NCAA Central Regional tournament in the Bresnan Arena.

Witt came through for the Huskies for the second consecutive game making two free throws with five seconds to go to put St. Cloud State up 80-77, before Phillips made the biggest play of his Husky career.

Phillips stole the ball off the Roadrunner dribble near the Huskies' bench and took it in for a lay-up to seal the second 26-win season in Schlagel's career.

Junior Josh Ortmann (Buffalo) also came up huge in the final moments of the game for the Huskies. As the shot clock ran down under 10 seconds, Ortmann hit a three pointer with 47.4 seconds to go in the game to take a 71-64 lead to help hold off a final rush by Metro State.

The Roadrunners answered with a three point play of their own to make it a 76-72 game with just less than 30 seconds remaining. After a made free throw by St. Cloud State, the Roadrunner's again answered with a three pointer to make it 77-75 before the Huskies closed out their fourth straight win to earn a trip to the second round of the tournament.

MAR. 14, 2010: In a battle between Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference foes, St. Cloud State put together a late game surge against No. 8 Minnesota State University Mankato to earn a school record 27th victory of the season with an 83-71 win in the semifinal round of the NCAA Central Regional tournament Sunday night.

After splitting the two regular season matchups against the Mavericks, St. Cloud State-the NSIC conference tournament champions, gave Minnesota State (25-5) - the NSIC regular season champions, their biggest point-loss of the season.

The rush for the school record in wins started after a back and forth second half of the play as the Huskies sat in a 71-68 lead with 3:07 to go in the game. St. Cloud State then outscored the Mavericks 11-3 in the final three minutes to claim the coveted victory.

St. Cloud State had a balanced attack all night long with four players scoring in double figures, as the Huskies shot nearly 48 percent from the field. Sophomore Josh Ortmann (Buffalo) was lights out from beyond the three point line; making 4-of-5 three's to give him 16 points in the game. Junior Nate Phillips had the biggest game of his career off the bench for St. Cloud State, scoring six points, grabbing five rebounds and recording four steals on the night.

MAR. 16, 2010: For the second time in school history a St. Cloud State men's basketball team will be playing in the NCAA Elite Eight after beating Augustana College 84-75 in overtime in the NCAA Central Regional Championship Tuesday night in the Taylor Center.

The Huskies (28-5) were able to cut down the nets for the second time this season as they outscored the Vikings 18-9 in overtime, including the final 11 points to make it to the Elite Eight for the first time since the 1986-87 season. St. Cloud State will next play Midwestern State Wednesday, March 24 in Springfield, Mass. with the game time to be announced.

Junior Andrew Bernstetter (St. Joseph) picked the right time to shine for St. Cloud as he scored his first points of the game with a put pack to bring the score to 75-73 in favor of the Vikings with 2:28 to go in overtime.

He then took the Husky lead back for good with a devastating three pointer just before the final minute to take a 76-75 lead.

"Bernie (Bernstetter) has been there for us all year. We knew at some point he would make a play for us," said head coach Schlagel.

After two Husky free throws, junior Nate Phillips (Rosemount) had a break-away layup, as he was out in front of the pack on a defensive rebound to seal the victory.

2010 NCAA ELITE EIGHT & FINAL FOUR PERFORMANCES

MAR. 24, 2010- Elite Eight: In the city where the game of basketball was born, St. Cloud State now stands alone in school history with a 92-88 win over Midwestern State University Wednesday afternoon in the Elite Eight round of the Division II tournament in the Mass Mutual Center in downtown Springfield, Mass.

Behind one of the top performances in Elite Eight history from junior Taylor Witt (Morris), St. Cloud State advanced to the Huskies first Final Four game in school history.

St. Cloud State ended the Mustangs season at 31-3 while recording a school record 29th win of the season, as Witt scored 20 of the final 21 dramatic points to down Midwestern State.

Witt went off for the fourth highest scoring total in an Elite Eight game with 43 points, including 38 in the second half. He also made a NCAA tournament record with 22 free throws made and 23 attempted.

"I just started to feel it. I was trying to take it to the hoop and pull up to get to the free throw line. In a big game like this, it's going to come down to free throws," Witt said of his attack on the Mustang defense.

Witt's 43 points were the third highest in school history, after scoring just five points in nine minutes of play in the first half.

"I think every kid's dream is to play in March... deep into March. We definitely wouldn't have been able to do it without the team," Witt said.

The last time a player scored 43 points in an Elite Eight game was when Jack Sullivan of Mount Saint Mary's scored 43 in 1957.

"It didn't surprise me (Witt's performance). He's a gamer and when he gets on a role like this, we just get into our sets and let him go," said head coach Kevin Schlagel.

All-American senior Matt Schneck (Whitefish Bay, Wis.) finished with his 22nd double-double of the season with 16 points and 13 rebounds.

MAR. 25, 2010- Final Four: The Huskies could not bounce back from an early first half deficit in the NCAA Division II Final Four Thursday night, to end a record setting 2009-10 season in losing 76-70 to No. 2 Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

The Huskies end the most successful season in school history at 29-6 en route to the team's first Final Four appearance. "It turned out to be a great game," head coach Kevin Schlagel said. "I'm very proud of the way we bounced back. I'm so proud of our team and what they have accomplished this year."

Schneck finished his career with one of the top performances in this year's tournament with his 23rd double-double of the season. He ended his last game in a Husky uniform with a game-high 29 points, while grabbing a tournament high 17 rebounds. "Everyone should be lucky enough to coach a guy like Matt. The NCAA should be very proud of this young man," Schlagel said.

Schneck also posted a double-double in all eight playoff games this season, and finishes his career as one of the top scorers and rebounders in school history. "This has been the best experience of my life. It's been a great four years at St. Cloud State," said Schneck reflecting on his career with the Huskies. "I'm just proud of the guys for fighting to get here."

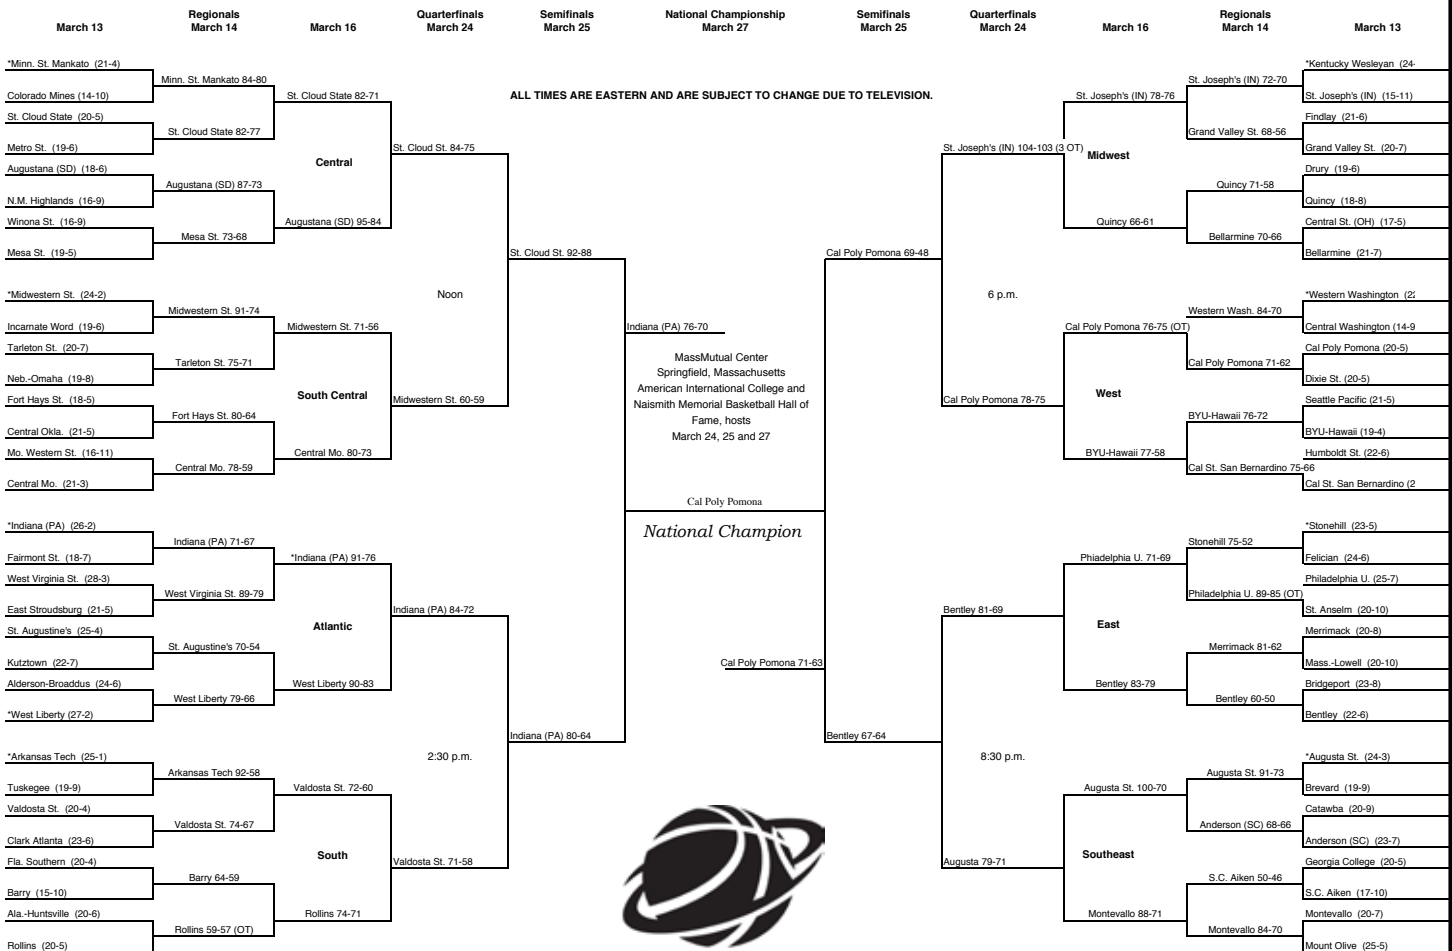

The Huskies had a slow start to the first half of play, making two of their first 15 shots to trail 19-6 half way through the half, before trailing 32-25 at the half. It was the lowest scoring first half of the season by the Huskies. St. Cloud State ended the half shooting 25 percent from the field, while the Crimson Hawks made 43.8 percent of their shots attempted.

St. Cloud State then came out and battled in the second half to and sophomore Brett Putz (Forest City, Iowa) made a crucial lay-up off an offensive rebound to tie the game at 64-64. But IUP had an answer for every St. Cloud State basket down the stretch to put an end to the season.
