HALONEN AND WINANS NAMED TO THE ACADEMIC HONOR ROLL:

The North Central Conference released the Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll for cross country this morning, October 25th. A pair of St. Cloud State University junior's, Christa Halonen and Emily Winans were honored as two of the 66 student-athletes named to the team.

To qualify for the Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll, the student-athlete must first have a minimum grade point average of 3.20. In addition they must also have completed at least two semesters at their current institution and have competed against outside competition.

Winans has been named to the Honor Roll for the second time in her career as a Husky, also being honored in her first year of eligibility in 2006. A junior from Fergus Fall, Minn., Winans currently maintains a 3.81 GPA as a Communication Studies – Interdepartmental major.

2007 marks the first time on the Commissioner's Honor Roll for Halonen. A junior from Annandale, Minn., she currently carries a 3.53 GPA as a management major.

In total 66 cross country student-athletes were named to the Honor Roll, from both men's and women's cross country teams around the league, with each school being represented.
