

Ron Lenz Players of the Year

Eric Czerniewski, Central Missouri Offensive Player of the Year

Central Missouri's Eric Czerniewski topped NCAA Division II with 5,207 passing yards and 46 TD passes while leading the Mules to an 11-3 mark and a national quarterfinal appearance.

The senior quarterback set new MIAA career marks with 12,874 passing yards and became the league's total offense leader.

He threw for 300 yards 10 times in 2010.

Larry Dean, Valdosta State Defensive Player of the Year

Valdosta State's Larry Dean led the Blazers to an NCAA Division II postseason appearance tallying 122 tackles in 11 games while becoming the Gulf South Conference's career tackles record holder.

Dean eclipsed the old GSC mark by 25 tackles while besting the Valdosta State career mark of 340 previous held by Jessie Tuggle.
