2005 SCSU Fall Golf Team News October, 2005 - Fall Final

SCSU Men Win Second Straight NCC Championship: The St. Cloud State men's golf team made up 11 strokes on the final day of the North Central Conference championships to win the team title for the second straight year and senior Chris Little (Elk River) was the individual runner-up following a one-hole playoff, after shooting a one-over par 73 in the final round (71-78-73). The Huskies trailed Minnesota State University, Mankato by six strokes heading into Monday's final round. SCSU finished the tournament with a 907 stroke total (303-306-298—907), followed by Minnesota State with 912 (298-305-309—912). The team title is the second straight and third all-time for the men's program (SCSU won team titles in 2004 and 1994). Minnesota State's David Harris fired a two-under-par 70 and went on to win the playoff over Little. St. Cloud State had three players finish in the top four as sophomores Cory Grace (Ogilvie) and Tanner Bown (Plymouth) tied for third with scores of 226. Grace shot a 76 on the final day (75-75-76) and Bown a 73 (78-75-73). First year Jake Zilkoski (St. Cloud) finished tied for 14th with a score of 235 (79-78-78) and senior John Cliplef (Poway, CA) tied for 18th with a 241 total (79-86-76). "Cory Grace played awesome and was a steady performer all weekend for us," said head coach Judi Larkin. "Chris went head to head with Minnesota State's David Harris, who probably played the best golf of his career. Our players played steady golf on the back side and really hung in there for the title."

Women Place Sixth in NCC: The St. Cloud State women's golf team placed sixth at the 2005 NCC Championships with a team score of 1063. Senior Becca Rotert (Sioux Falls, SD) and sophomore Brooke Bezek (Fergus Falls) tied for 22nd in the three-day tournament with scored of 266. Rotert shot an 88 in the final round (88-90-88) and Bezek a 92 (93-81-92). Junior Sammi Jones (Austin) tied for 26th with a 269 (94-91-84) and sophomore Kristin Edberg (Belle Plaine) finished 29th with a 293 (98-104-91). First year Jenna McKean (Blackduck) withdrew from the final round (88-83-WD). The University of North Dakota was the women's team champion with a score of 952. Carley Roach of Augustana College was the women's medalist with a 231, including a final round one-over-par 73.

All-NCC Honors: St. Cloud State placed three players on the 2005 All-North Central Conference Men's Golf First Team and head coach Judi Larkin was named the Men's NCC Coach of the Year for the second consecutive year. Senior Chris Little (Elk River) and sophomores Tanner Bown (Plymouth) and Corey Grace (Ogilvie) were named to the five member first team. Little is a two-time All-NCC first team player, having been named to the team in 2004.

Last Year: The SCSU men's squad won the 2004 NCC Championship with a three-day total of 889, 24 strokes better than second place, University of North Dakota. Three Huskies placed in the top ten, including current players senior Chris Little (Elk River) who tied for third and sophomore Tommy Smith (St. Cloud) who finished sixth. Junior Tanner Bown (Plymouth) placed 14th. Graduated player Brett Swedberg was the NCC individual medalist.

The SCSU women finished sixth with a three-day total of 1099. Minnesota State, Mankato won the team title. Current junior Quinn Scarborough (Alexandria) led the Huskies with a 14th place finish.

Huskies in the NCC: The SCSU men's team has won three NCC golf titles. The first was won in 1994, followed by titles in 2004 and 2005.

2005 Fall Highlights: The SCSU men placed third at last week's Minnesota State University, Mankato Invitational, with Chris Little placing fourth as an individual. SCSU also had a third place finish at the Bemidji State Invitational and Little placed second individually. The Huskies were eighth at the Northwest Region Fall Head to Head Tournament. Little was the top finisher for the Huskies, placing eighth.

The SCSU women are coming off a third place finish at the Blazer Invitational played last week. The Huskies also placed third at the Winona State Invitational to open the season.

SCSU Head Coach: Judi Larkin (St. Cloud State) is in her sixth season as head coach of the SCSU men's and women's golf teams. She was named the 2005 NCC Men's Coach of the Year, an honor she also earned in 2004. A standout tennis player at SCSU, Larkin and her family reside in St. Cloud.
