Spring 2008 Golf News FINAL

May 9, 2008

2008 Spring Finish: The 2008 St. Cloud State men's golf team brought the season to a close with a fifth place finish at the NCAA Division II Northwest/West Super Regional held at the Adobe Creek Golf Course, May 5-7, in Petaluma, California. The Huskies posted a three-day score of 911 (302-306-303). The University of Colorado -Colorado Springs was the team champion with a score of 875 (296-288-291).

Ross Places Seventh: Husky sophomore Travis Ross (Crookston) placed seventh overall after posting rounds of 73-73-75 for a five over par score of 221. Scott Crichton of Western New Mexico and Max Hadenfeldt of Nebraska-Kearney were the co-medalists with scores of 291.

Husky Line-up: St. Cloud State's lineup included 1. senior Danny Anderson (Willmar), 2. sophomore Travis Ross (Crookston), 3. junior Jake Zilkoski (St. Cloud), 4. sophomore Evan Peters (Glenwood), and 5. first year Mitch Means (Brainerd). Anderson finished in 14th place with a ten over par score of 226. He shot rounds of 75-79 and even par 72 on the final day. Zilkoski shot a final round 75 to finish in a tie for 16th. He had scores of 76-77-75-228. Means finished in 41st place with a score of 78-77-90-245 and Peters finished in 45th place with rounds of 84-84-81-249.

Fifth Straight Super Regional: This marks the fifth straight year that St. Cloud State has qualified for the Super Regional. The Huskies were Northwest Region Champions in 2004 and 2006. Last year the Huskies placed fourth at the super regional. The Huskies also boast three straight individual medalists in the Northwest Region tournament starting with Brett Swedberg in 2004, Chris Little in 2005, and Corey Grace (co-medalist) in 2006.

Spring Competition: In competition this spring, SCSU players have had strong showings. At the Northwest Regional Spring Head to Head held April 21 and 22, Danny Anderson tied for third after shooting rounds of 73-78-73 on the par 72 layout. Travis Ross was the individual medalist at the Upper Iowa Peacock Invitational on April 6, shooting a one under par 71. Jake Zilkoski tied for second at the Golden Bear Invite on April 14 at The Jewel in Lake City. He shot a one under par 70 in that tournament. Evan Peters tied for third at the Concordia Spring Invite on April 15 after shooting a 75.

Women's Season Ends with Okoboji Invite: The St. Cloud State women's squad completed the spring season at the Okoboji Invitational on April 27. The Huskies competed in four spring events and won their dual against the College of St. Benedict on April 23. The Huskies finished in the top ten in each of the three tournaments. The women's squad was led by a quintet of sophomores in Krista Kalthoff (Albany), Nicole Peters (Cottage Grove), Lee Zutz (Red Lake Falls), Shannon Moran (Bloomington), and Kayla Nesvold (New Ulm). Zutz was the co-medalist at the SCSU/St. Ben's dual on April 23 after shooting an 87 at Wapicada Golf Course.

Ron Danielson, Jake Zilkoski, Travis Ross, Theo Frentzos,
Corey Grace, Danny Anderson, Judi Larkin

2007 North Central Conference Champions: The St. Cloud State University men's golf team won the final North Central Conference Golf Championship in style, beating the field by 16 strokes. The Huskies trailed Minnesota State University, Mankato by two strokes after 36 holes of the 54-hole tournament. SCSU played a solid final round at the Prairie Green Golf Course in Sioux Falls, making up 18 strokes. Husky sophomore Travis Ross (Crookston) was the individual medalist. Ross turned in a two-under-par 70 in the final round to finish at five under par (69-72-70=211) for the tournament.

"I knew after the second hole that we would have a good run," said SCSU head coach Judi Larkin. "We played solid all day and had a very steady round. We talked about this being the last NCC Championships and it meant a lot to win the final one." Four SCSU players earned All-North Central Conference honors with top eight finishes. Senior Corey Grace (Ogilvie), playing in the last tournament of his collegiate career holed out on the final hole of the championship to finish at two-under par for the day. For the tournament he shot 77-75-70=222 for finish in a third place tie with fellow teammate and senior Theo Frentzos (Elk River). Frentzos shot rounds of 78-73-71=222 to finish at six over par for the tournament. Senior Danny Anderson (Willmar) finished in eighth place after carding a 76-75-74=225. Junior Jake Zilkoski (St. Cloud) tied for 16th in the tournament with a score of 234 after shooting rounds of 76-79-79.

St. Cloud State improved its overall scoring in every round to finish with a team total of 878 (298-295-285), and 14 over par for the tournament. Minnesota State University, Mankato finished second with a score of 894 (299-292-303).

Fourth and Final NCC Title: The 2007 NCC title marked the fourth team championship for the SCSU men and third since the 2004 season. The Huskies have won titles in 1994, 2004, 2005 and 2007. The 2007 Championship marked the final golf event in the NCC as the league will end its long run of competition in June, 2008. Ross became the third Husky to win medalist honors, following Chad Tucker in 1993 and Brett Swedberg in 2004.

2007 All-NCC Team: Four Huskies were named to the 2007 All-North Central Conference men's team. Sophomore Travis Ross (Crookston), and seniors Corey Grace (Ogilvie), Theo Frentzos (Elk River) and Danny Anderson (Willmar) were named to the 2007 All-North Central Conference Golf Team. Ross, the 2007 NCC Champion, along with Grace and Frentzos, was named to the first team. Anderson was a second team selection. Ross led the NCC tournament from start to finish and won the individual title by four strokes. Grace and Frentzos tied for third in the standings and Anderson finished in eighth place.

NCC Commissioner's Honor Roll: Three sophomore members of the St. Cloud State women's team were named to the 2007 North Central Conference Commissioner's Honor Roll. Megan Hagemeyer (Woodbury), a biomedical science major, Shannon

Moran (Bloomington), an elementary education major, and Lee Zutz (Red Lake Falls), a pre-business major were honored. On the men's side, NCC medalist Travis Ross (Crookston) and seniors Bobby Gaulke (Great Falls, MT) and Grant Hanson (Alexandria) were named to the Honor Roll. Hanson was named to the Honor Roll for the second straight year and is a finance major. Ross is a pre-business major and Gaulke is majoring in recreation sports management.

Head Coach Judi Larkin: Larkin was named the 2007 NCC Men's Golf Coach of the Year and has completed her eighth season as the head coach of the men's and women's programs. She was named Coach of the Year for the third time, having been honored in 2004 and 2005. Larkin has guided the SCSU men's team to five straight NCAA Division II Super Regional appearances and two NCAA Championship tournaments. Her 2004 women's squad placed second in the NCAA regional and advanced to the NCAA Championships where they placed eighth. Larkin was named the 2006 Golf Coaches Association of America (GCAA) Northwest Region Coach of the Year, after guiding the men's team to its second NCAA Division II Northwest Region Championship in the spring of 2006. That same team also advanced to the NCAA Division II National Championships for the second time in three seasons (last in 2004) and placed 17th as a team. Senior Chris Little (Maple Grove) earned All-American honors with a seventh place individual finish. That came on the heels of the Huskies second NCAA DII Northwest Region Championship. Larkin also led the team to the 2004 and 2005 North Central Conference Championships. Larkin is a 2007 inductee of the St. Cloud State University Athletic Hall of Fame. Larkin was a stand-out tennis player for the Huskies from 1982 to 1985.
