2010-11 Golf News FINAL: May, 2011

MEN- 2011 SPRING FINISH: St. Cloud State finished the 2011 golf season in a tie for 17th place at the NCAA Division II Central/West Super Regional played at the University of New Mexico Championship Golf Course in Albuquerque, N.M. (par 72, 7,324 yards). The Huskies posted a team score of 915 (311-305-299) to tie for 17th place. CSU-Monterey Bay won the team title with a nine under par score of 855 (291-283-281).

HUSKY LINE-UP: The Huskies posted their lowest round of the NCAA Regional, a 299 on the final day of the 54-hole tournament. Senior Alex Dawald (Ortonville) finished the tournament with back to back rounds of even par. He opened the tournament with a 79 and played the final two rounds in par. On the final day, he opened play with an eagle on the par 5 first hole. Dawald shot 79-72-72 to finish at 223 and tied for 44th place. Junior Jordan Dickey (Faribault) improved his score by ten strokes on the final day as he also shot even par 72. Dickey posted scores of 81-82-72=235 and tied for 86th place. Junior Beau Anderson (Cottage Grove) posted his low round of the tournament, a 76 on the final day. He had rounds of 79-83-76=238 and finished tied for 102nd place.

First year golfer Devin Holmes (Ramsey) shot a 79 to go with rounds of 75-74 for a three-day total of 228. He finished in 66th place. Sophomore Gordy Diekman (Alexandria) shot 78-77-80 for a 235 and finished in a tied for 86th place along with Dickey.

EIGHTH STRAIGHT SUPER REGIONAL: 2011 marked the eighth straight year that St. Cloud State has qualified for the NCAA Regional Tournament. The Huskies were Northwest Region Champions in 2004 and 2006. In 2010 the Huskies tied for 11th in the Super Regional. The Huskies also boast three straight individual medalists in the Northwest Region tournament starting with Brett Swedberg in 2004, Chirs Little in 2005, and Corey Grace (co-medalist) in 2006.

2011 NSIC FINISH: St. Cloud State finished fifth in the NSIC. The conference championship consisted of five rounds of competition. Two rounds were played in the fall and three in the spring.

WOMEN - 2011 SPRING FINISH: The St. Cloud State women's golf team placed seventh and Augustana College won the 2011 NSIC Women's Golf Championship played in October and April. The Huskies posted a team score of 351-344-329-347=1371. Augustana College won the team title with a score of 308-307-309-303=1227.

HUSKY LINE-UP: St. Cloud State junior Shayna Mann (Dickinson, N.D.) tied for 21st to lead the Huskies in the individual standings at the NSIC Championship. Mann led the Huskies with rounds of 92-83-77-82=334. Junior Emily Kerber (St. Cloud) placed 27th with scores of 84-85-87-85=341. Sophomore Katie Casper (Grand Rapids) shot 94-88-82-89=353 and tied for 30th place. Junior Rachael Stoebe (Sartell) shot 91-88-86-91=356 to finish tied for 32nd. First year Shelby Sauer (Bemidji) rounded out the spring line-up. She shot 84-98=182.

KERBER QUALIFIES AND COMPETES AT NCAA CENTRAL REGIONAL:

Junior Emily Kerber (St. Cloud) was selected to compete in the NCAA Division II Women's Golf Central Region Championship May 1-3 at Hillcrest Golf Club in St. Paul. Kerber was one of four individuals and nine teams invited to participate in the Central Region Championship. This is the second straight year that a Husky golfer has been invited to the NCAA region championship. Last year Lee Zutz competed at the Central Region Championship and finished tied for 29th place. In her first NCAA Division II Central Region competition Kerber finished in a tie for 33rd place. Kerber tallied a three-round, 54-hole score of 267 in the championship. She carded rounds of 87, 89 and 91. In the final round, she shot a 43 on the back side, her second lowest nine-hole score of the tournament. She shot a 42 on the back nine during first day action.
