2004-05 SCSU Golf Team News

Release Date: October 6, 2004

This Weekend: The St. Cloud State men's and women's golf teams will compete for the 2004 North Central Conference Championship in Omaha, Nebraska. The competition will take place Saturday through Monday, October 9-11.

Last Week: The SCSU men's team made up a ten stroke difference on the final day to win the Twin Cities Classic on Monday. The Huskies trailed St. John's University after the second day of the tournament. All five Husky players shot in the 70s on the final day to give the team the win. Senior Brett Swedberg (Alexandria) was the co-medalist as he shot a final round 70 and finished the tournament with a 75-74-70-219. Chris Little finished tied for fifth at 71-76-77-224; Tanner Bown tied for tenth at 72-75-79-226; Tommy Smith tied for 56th at 82-80-76-238 and Eric Anderson tied for 67th at 84-81-76-241.

The SCSU women's golf team finished fourth at the Blazer Invitational played at Greystone Golf Club, October 2-3. The College of St. Benedict won the tournament with a two-day team total of 695. St. Thomas and Gustavus tied for second at 700, and the Huskies were fourth with a 732 total. SCSU's Quinn Scarborough was the low scorer for the Huskies with a two day total of 179. She was followed by Kristina Carlin at 182, Sammie Jones at 186, Becca Rotert at 189 and Kristin Edberg at 191.

2003 NCC Results: The SCSU men placed third and the women fourth at the 2003 North Central Conference Championships.

Head Coach: Judi Larkin (St. Cloud State) is in her fifth season as head coach of the Huskies. She is a former SCSU tennis player and resides in St. Cloud with her family.
