2005 SCSU Spring Golf Team News

Release Date: March 28, 2005 - Spring Golf

2005 Spring Opener: The St. Cloud State University men's and women's golf teams will open the spring 2005 season on Sunday and Monday, April 3 and 4 at the University of South Dakota Invitational in Vermillion, South Dakota.

Golfers to Watch: Senior Brett Swedberg (Alexandria) is coming off an outstanding fall season. Swedberg was the medalist in three of the five competitions during the fall season and placed second in the other two. He was the medalist in the 2004 North Central Conference Championships and was co-medalist in the Northwest Region Head to Head. Junior Chris Little (Elk River) was the co-medalist with Swedberg at the Northwest Region Head to Head and placed third at the NCC Championships. On the women's side, sophomore Quinn Scarborough (Alexandria) had the top finish for the Huskies at the NCC Championships, a 14th place tie.

Fall 2004 in Review: The St. Cloud State University men's golf team won the North Central Conference team championship with a three-day team total of 889 strokes. Senior Brett Swedberg (Alexandria) led from start to finish and won individual medalist honors with a one-under par 215 total (71-72-72). He shot an even par 72 in the final round. The team title was the second for an SCSU men's team as the Huskies won it in 1994. Swedberg became the second SCSU player to win the individual title following Chad Tucker who was the 1993 medalist.

The Huskies had top ten performances from three other golfers as junior Chris Little (Elk River) finished tied for third with a three-day stroke total of 223 (76-70-77). First year player Tommy Smith (St. Cloud) finished sixth at 226 (72-75-79) and sophomore Erik Anderson (Naperville, IL) was eighth at 228 (76-75-77). Sophomore Tanner Bown (Plymouth) rounded out the Husky scoring with a 14th place finish at 234 (80-78-76).

Women's NCC Results: The SCSU women's team finished sixth with a three-day team total of 1099. Minnesota State University won the team title with a score of 965, followed by Nebraska-Omaha (966), North Dakota (1008), Augustana (1014), and South Dakota (1049).

Sophomore Quinn Scarborough (Alexandria) led the Huskies and finished tied for 14th with an 84-88-87-259 total. Sophomore Sammi Jones (Austin) finished 25th with a 277 (96-97-84), senior Kristina Carlin (St. Cloud) was 26th at 280 (97-93-90), senior Becca Rotert (Sioux Falls, SD) was 28th at 283 (93-92-98), and first year player Kristin Edberg (Belle Plain) was 29th at 322 (108-111-103).

All-NCC: SCSU placed two golfers on the 2004 All-North Central Conference Men's First Team and two others were named to the second team. Senior Brett Swedberg (Alexandria) and junior Chris Little (Elk River) were named to the First team. Sophomore Erik Anderson (Naperville, IL) and first year golfer Tommy Smith (St. Cloud) were named to the second team.

NCC Coach of the Year: SCSU head men's and women's golf coach Judi Larkin was named the NCC Men's Golf Coach of the Year. Larkin (St. Cloud State) is in her fifth season as head coach of the Huskies.
