Spring 2007 Golf News - Final - May, 2007

SCSU Men Place Fourth at NCAA DII Northwest

Regional Tournament: The St. Cloud State University men's golf team placed fifth at the three-day NCAA Division II Northwest Region Golf Tournament played at the Fox Hollow Golf Course in Lakewood, Colorado. The Huskies combined for a three-day total of 874 (299-295-290), 22 over par. Western New Mexico won the team title with a three-over par 855 (286-285-284). SCSU first year golfer Travis Ross (Crookston) had an outstanding tournament, placing third overall among individual golfers. He shot a 73 on the final day to finish the tournament at two under par 211 (70-68-73).

Three Huskies finished in the top ten overall led by Ross with his third place finish. Ross was the individual leader heading into the final round. Sophomore Jake Zilkoski (St. Cloud) placed sixth after shooting a final round 69, two under par. He finished the tournament with a three over par 216 (76-71-69). Both Ross and Zilkoski eagled the par 5, 543-yard fourth hole on the final day. Junior Danny Anderson (Willmar) tied for seventh overall as he shot a 70 in his final round to finish the tournament at four-over par 217 (76-71-70). Anderson shot a three-under par 33 on the back nine with birdies on the final two holes in the final round. Junior Bobby Gaulke (McCook, NE) finished 33rd overall with a three-day total 231 (78-75-78). Junior Theo Frentzos (Elk River) finished 39th with a 235 (77-78-80).

Fourth Bid to NCAA West/Northwest Super Regional: 2007 marked the fourth straight year that the men's golf team has received a bid to the NCAA Division II West/Northwest Super Regional.

The Huskies were crowned Northwest Region Champions in 2004 and 2006, advancing to the NCAA Division II National Championships. In 2005, SCSU placed fourth in the region tournament. The Huskies went on to a 16th place in the 2004 National Championship and 17th in 2006.

The Huskies also boast back-to-back-to-back individual medalists in the Northwest Regional as Brett Swedberg won the individual title in 2004, Chris Little won it in 2005, and current Husky Corey Grace was the co-medalist in 2006.

Men Are Two-for-Four: St. Cloud State men's golf team opened the spring season with back to back team titles after winning the Upper Iowa Spring Classic and the University of South Dakota Invite. The Huskies then placed third at the Northwest Region Spring Head to Head tournament and second at the SJU Invitational.

Women Finish Spring Schedule With Fifth Place Finish at Minnesota State Invite:

The St. Cloud State women's golf team placed fifth at the Minnesota State Invitational played Saturday and Sunday at Pebble Creek Golf Club in Becker. The Huskies posted a two-day score of 352-354=706. The Huskies were led by first year golfer Megan Hagemeyer (Woodbury). Hagemeyer shot an 83-84=167 to place 14th. Rookie Lee Zutz (Red Lake Falls) posted an 82-88=170 and placed 19th. Junior Brooke Bezek (Fergus Falls) placed 36th and shot a 91-93=184. First year Nicole Peters (Cottage Grove) placed 37th and carded a 96-89=185, and Shannon Moran (Bloomington) a 101-96=196 for 46th place. First year golf Kayla Nesvold (New Ulm) and junior Pam Roth (Maple Plain) competed as individuals in the tournament. Nesvold placed 41st with a score of 95-95-190 and Roth finished 42nd with a score of 92-99=191.

Head Coach: SCSU head men's and women's golf coach Judi Larkin (St. Cloud State) has completed her seventh season with the Huskies. Larkin was named the NCC Men's Golf Coach of the Year in 2004 and 2005. Larkin has guided the SCSU men's team to three Northwest Region Tournaments over the last four seasons and two NCAA Championship tournaments. Her 2004 women's squad placed second in the NCAA regional and advanced to the NCAA Championships where they placed eighth. Larkin was named the 2006 Golf Coaches Association of America (GCAA) Northwest Region Coach of the Year, after guiding the men's team to its second NCAA Division II Northwest Region Championship in the spring of 2006. In the spring of 2006 SCSU advanced to the NCAA Division II National Championships for the second time in three seasons (last in 2004) and placed 17th as a team. Senior Chris Little (Maple Grove) earned All-American honors with a seventh place individual finish. That came on the heels of the Huskies second NCAA DII Northwest Region Championship. Larkin also led the team to the 2005 North Central Conference Championship, the second straight conference title and third overall for the Huskies program.
