MADISON, Wis. – Minnesota Duluth raised the national championship banner for the 2007-08 women's season at the DECC on Oct. 10, but visiting Minnesota wrecked the party by beating the defending Western Collegiate Hockey Association and national champs twice.

Melanie Gagnon scored the game-winning power play goal with :25 seconds left in overtime to give the No. 6 Golden Gophers (3-1-0, 2-0-0 WCHA) a 4-3 victory over the top-rated Bulldogs (2-2-0, 0-2-0 WCHA) in the WCHA season opener last Friday and then Jenny Lura made 36 saves and freshmen twins Jocelyne and Monique Lamoureux each scored to complete the sweep with a 2-0 victory last Saturday. UMD had not been swept on its home ice since Wisconsin won twice there on Jan. 6-7, 2002. The last time UMD had been shutout at home also came against Minnesota when Kim Hanlon won, 3-0, last year on Nov. 18.

The Gophers' sweep was just one of three on the first weekend of league play for six of the eight WCHA-member teams. Wisconsin stayed unbeaten by beating Ohio State (2-2, 0-2) twice, 7-4 and North Dakota took two one-goal decisions from St. Cloud State last weekend in Grand Forks, N.D. It was the Fighting Sioux's first sweep over the Huskies (2-2-0, 0-2-0 WCHA) since 2004 and gives UND a 3-1-0 overall record (2-0-0 WCHA), its best ever start. Brittany Kirkham made 32 saves to backstop North Dakota's 2-1 series opening victory on Oct. 10 and Stephanie Ney made 38 saves in a 3-2 victory last Saturday.

In non-conference play last weekend, host Minnesota State (3-1-0, 0-0-0 WCHA) swept Maine, 5-2 and 4-0, at Mankato, Minn. And Bemidji State (1-1-2, 0-0-0 WCHA) tied Northeastern twice, 0-0 and 2-2. Minnesota Duluth is at St. Cloud State and the National Hockey Center, Minnesota State visits North Dakota and Ralph Engelstad Arena, Minnesota entertains Ohio State at Ridder Arena, and Wisconsin is at Bemidji State and John Glas Fieldhouse on Friday. Looking ahead to the following week (Oct. 20-26), St. Cloud State will host the U.S. Women's Select Team on Tuesday, Oct. 21. On Friday and Saturday, Oct. 24-25, Bemidji State is at Ohio State, Minnesota State visits Minnesota Duluth in league play while in non-conference series, St. Cloud State entertains Brown and North Dakota hosts Union College. 2008-09 WCHA PRE-SEASON COACHES' POLL

The University of Minnesota Duluth, which swept the national championship, the regular season championship and the WCHA FINAL FACE-OFF title in a memorable streak last season, is the pre-season choice to repeat as Western Collegiate Hockey Association champions in 2008-09, according to league coaches.

This is the tenth season of WCHA women's play and league teams have won the national championship every season, including the inaugural campaign of 1999-2000. The Bulldogs kept the WCHA's national title streak alive in 2007-08 when they won their fourth national title by defeating two-time defending champion Wisconsin, 4-0, on their home ice in Duluth in the NCAA title game. The victory capped a memorable season for UMD, which went 33-4-1 and also scored an overtime victory over Wisconsin to win the title of the newly-renamed WCHA FINAL FACE-OFF, the league playoff championships.

The Bulldogs received five first-place votes and a total of 47 points in the pre-season poll (the eight league coaches couldn't vote for their own team). They edged Minnesota, which grabbed two first-place votes, and Wisconsin, which had one first place vote, and had a total of 41 points. UMD, Wisconsin and Minnesota were ranked first through third in the national USA Today/US Hockey Magazine preseason college hockey poll as well.

Ohio State rounds out the top four followed by St. Cloud State, Minnesota State, North Dakota and Bemidji State.

For the second straight season, league-member coaches have picked Minnesota senior forward Gigi Marvin as the pre-season most valuable player. Four other players – Wisconsin forwards Meghan Duggan and Erika Lawler plus Minnesota Duluth goaltender Kim Martin, a Patty Kazmaier finalist last year, and teammate Haley Irwin, the forward who led the league in scoring with 60 points last season – also received votes for preseason MVP.

Minnesota Duluth's Pernilla Winberg, a forward from Sweden who was Martin's teammate on the silver medalist Swedish Olympic team in 2006, was voted the league's pre-season rookie of the year. She received half the votes from the eight coaches. Minnesota forward Jocelyne Lamoureux, Ohio State forward Natalie Spooner, and Wisconsin forward Carlyne Prevost also each received a vote.

A GLANCE AT THE 2008-09 SEASON

CONFERENCE MARKS 10TH SEASON OF PLAY, LOOKS TO DEFEND RECORD RUN OF NINE CONSECUTIVE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS; CONFERENCE PLAY GETS UNDERWAY OCT. 10-11; RIDDER ARENA TO HOST WCHA FINAL FACE-OFF FOR NEXT THREE SEASONS; WCHA APPROVES SHOOTOUTS TO BREAK TIES THIS SEASON

MADISON, Wis. – The Western Collegiate Hockey Association, celebrating the 10th season of women's hockey, has plenty of new developments and exciting events that will earmark the 2008-09 season.

"We are all looking forward to the season," said Martin. "We have enjoyed great fortune and success throughout the first nine seasons of WCHA women's hockey and we look forward to celebrating our tenth season of play by continuing to develop our sport and expose our student-athletes and coaches to an ever-growing legion of fans.

"Coming off our ninth consecutive national championship, and based on the continuing emergence of all of our member teams, we're confident the WCHA as a whole will be even more competitive from top to bottom this coming season."

The conference's post-season championship tournament will open the weekend of February 27-March 1 (Friday, Saturday and Sunday) with a first round, best-of-three series format at campus sites. The No. 1 seeded team will host the No. 8 seed, the No. 2 seed will host the No. 7 seed, the No. 3 seed will host the No. 6 seed, and the No. 4 seed will host the No. 5 seed.

The four first-round winners will then advance to the 2009 WCHA FINAL FACE-OFF at Ridder Arena in Minneapolis, Minn., on Saturday and Sunday, March 7-8. On Saturday, there will be two semi-final match-ups at 1:07 pm CT and 4:07 pm CT, with the playoff championship game set for Sunday at 1:07 pm CT.

The WCHA has introduced the shootout this season, after the option was installed recently by the rules committee. An NHL-style three-player shootout will be used to determine a winner for all WCHA games tied after regulation and five-minute overtime. For non-conference games involving WCHA home teams, the shootout procedure will be optional.

The NCAA rules and ice hockey committees have allowed conferences the ability to implement this tie-breaker protocol so that every regular-season league game will have a winner while preserving the integrity of the national rankings. Games decided by a shootout will still be considered ties for NCAA purposes so there will be no effect on NCAA records for the purposes of the Pairwise and determining the NCAA tournament field. Bonus points awarded will impact the conference standings only.

The WCHA has also approved the following point system for regular-season play; two (2) points for a win in regulation or overtime, one (1) point for each school if the game is tied at the conclusion of the five-minute overtime period, and one (1) point is awarded to the team who wins the shootout. Overtime will continue to be played similar to regulation time with five skaters for each team (penalties excepted).

All Association home games will again face-off at either :07 or :37 after the hour in 2008-09.

The battle for the 2008-09 WCHA regular season championship will again consist of a 28-game schedule for each of the league's eight clubs, with each team playing the other seven four times – twice at home and twice on the road. The opening weekend of league competition – October 10-11 – will have defending national champion and WCHA champion

WCHA WOMEN ADOPT SHOOTOUT FOR 2008-09 REGULAR SEASON PLAY

LEAGUE TO USE NEW OPTION TO DETERMINE WINNER AFTER CONCLUSION OF STANDARD 5:00 OVERTIME PERIOD

MADISON, Wis. – The Western Collegiate Hockey Association has become the first NCAA Division 1 women's conference to officially re-introduce the shootout to college hockey, after the option was installed recently by the rules committee, Associate Commissioner Sara R. Martin announced today (August 28). The Central Collegiate Hockey Association also recently announced plans to use the shootout in its men's games. The Hockey East Association previously had installed a shootout in the mid-1990s, and is among the conferences considering re-instituting it, but has not yet.

A National Hockey League-style three-player shootout will be used to determine a winner for all WCHA regular season games still tied after regulation and the standard five-minute (5:00) overtime.

The NCAA Rules and Ice Hockey Committees have allowed conferences the ability to implement this tie-breaking protocol so that every regular-season league game will have a winner while preserving the integrity of the national rankings. Regular season games decided by a shootout will still be considered ties for NCAA purposes so there will be no effect on NCAA records for the purposes of the Pairwise and determining the national tournament field. Bonus points awarded will impact conference standings only.

"As a group, our head coaches were unanimous in adopting this exciting tie-breaking procedure to determine a winner for our regular season games," said Martin. "Over our first nine seasons as a Division 1 league, the Western Collegiate Hockey Association has continued to bring an impressive brand of women's hockey to the ice and collectively we think the adoption of the shootout will add an extra element of drama to our games for student-athletes, coaches, fans and media."

The WCHA has also approved the following point system for regular-season play; two (2) points for a win in regulation or overtime, one (1) point for each team if the game is still tied at the conclusion of the five-minute (5:00) overtime period, and one (1) additional point being awarded to the team who wins the shootout. Overtime will continue to be played similar to regulation time with five skaters and one goaltender for each team (penalties excepted).

THE ROAD TO THE 2009 WCHA CHAMPIONSHIP

HEAD-TO-HEAD RECORDS

Note: each WCHA-member team plays the other seven conference-member teams four times during the regular season – two home and two away – for a total of 28 league games. Victories are worth two points, ties are worth one. The team with the most points accumulated at the end of the regular season is the WCHA champion. In the event of ties for first place, teams will be declared co-WCHA champions.
