

Sarah Loquai

St. Cloud State University diver wins NCAA Division II one-meter title in 1997

St. Cloud State University swimming history was made during the 1996-97 season as junior diver Sarah Loquai became the first diver in University history to win an NCAA Division II individual title.

Loquai brought home top honors in the one-meter diving event, as she posted a score of 354.25 at the national championships. Loquai, a three-time All-America award winner in the one-meter diving event, also brought home All-America honors by placing sixth in the three-meter diving event with a point total of 365.15.

A native of Red Wing, Loquai established herself as one of the nation's premiere Division II divers. In 1995, Loquai placed 15th in the one-meter event and in 1996, she placed fourth in the one-meter event.

She is a five-time All-American, five-time NCC Champion and three-time NCC Diver of the Year. She holds the conference one-meter diving record and is the SCSU record holder in the one-meter board.

