TO MAKE A CORRECTION: If there is a discrepancy for a team, do not just send a new season total. Instead, please compare your results to those in the NCAA database and send any match figures that need updated to Jenn (jroddgers@ncaa.org) by Friday, March 6.

You can search the database at <http://web1.ncaa.org/stats/StatsSrv/careersearch>. In the "School/Sport Search" box, select the school, the current year (2008-09), women's volleyball, and hit search. Follow the link to your school's page, and then click on the win-loss record to view the game results. (FYI: you'll notice that "2009" shows as the year for the student-athletes... the database reads the 2008-09 academic year as 2009).
