

Career Information for Community Health

A College of Education Major

General Overview Information

A program in community health prepares people to work as health officers. Students learn to manage healthcare services. They also study preventive medicine, health policy, and health law enforcement.

Do You Have These Characteristics?

Strong Interest in Helping Others · Work Independently & as part of a Team · Analytical Excellent Communication Skills · Public Speaking Skills · Problem Solving Skills

Salary Information Can Be Found At:

www.bls.gov/bls/blswage.htm

www.iseek.org

www.stcloudstate.edu/careerservices

What Can You Do?

- Safety/Hygiene Director
- Industrial Hygienist
- Occupational Safety and Health Technician
- Human Resources/Employee Wellness Coordinator
- Health Program Director
- HMO Consultant
- Program Analyst
- Non-Profit Health Promoter/Educator

Where Can You Work?

- City, County & State Government Health Departments
- Non-Profit Organizations and Foundations
- Health Maintenance Organizations
- Insurance Companies
- Consultants
- Health Clubs
- In House Health and Safety Departments
- Hospitals
-and MORE!!

Resources

- SCSU Community Health – <http://bulletin.stcloudstate.edu/ugb/programs/hlth.asp>
- Society for Public Health Education – www.sophe.org
- American Alliance of Health, Physical, Education, Recreation & Dance – www.aahperd.org
- American Public Health Association – www.apha.org
- American College of Healthcare Executives – www.healthmanagementcareers.org
- America's Top Medical, Education & Human Service Jobs
- Career Opportunities in Health Care
- Career Opportunities in the Nonprofit Sector
- Jobs and Careers with Non-Profit Organizations
- Minnesota Business Directory
- National Trade and Professional Associations
- Opportunities in Health and Medical Careers
- The College Majors Handbook
- Top 100 Healthcare Careers

(Books are available at SCSU Career Services Center)