

Pathways Program Sample Course List

Course/Description	Faculty	Credits
BIOL 101 Environment and Society Causes and possible solutions to major local, national and global environmental problems. Soil, water, air, forests, energy, wildlife, and related topics. 【 4 unit assignments 】	Schrank	3
BIOL 103 Human Biology(Lab Course- Requires access to a computer for use of CD-Rom) Organization and general functioning of the human body. Reproduction; heredity; social implications of biological principles. 【 5 video assignments, 2 lab assignments, 4 exams, 1 quiz, 1 bonus quiz 】	Gazal	3
CEEP 262 Human Growth and Development A life-span approach to growth and development; physical, intellectual, emotional, and social phases as related to total growth. 【 5 proctored pen-&-paper exams; 1 paper/project 】	Hoover	3
CFS 404/504 Birth Order in the Family Implications of birth order on the family; implications of the family constellation. 【 1 paper 】	Beniek	1
CJS 100 History of Criminal Justice The historical development of the Anglo-American criminal justice system from its inception to the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968.	Hesse	3

Course/Description	Faculty	Credits
CIS 111 (MGM) Crime and Justice in America Components, structure, and functioning of the criminal justice system in America: crime victims, law enforcement, courts, corrections, probation, parole, community corrections and juvenile justice. Document the failures of the system to provide equal justice to all people, especially women, children, and people of culturally diverse backgrounds. 【 5 proctored pen-&-paper exams; paper; book report 】	Schreiber	3
CIS 441 Correctional Alternatives Alternatives to incarceration: probation, fines, house arrest, electronic surveillance, restitution programs, sentencing to service, community residential facilities, parole and supervised release. Probation and community corrections agent roles and responsibilities; pre-sentence investigation; supervision methods.	Hesse	3
CMST 192 Introduction to Communication Studies Interpersonal communication, small group communication and public speaking. Theory and experience to relate meaningfully, think critically, organize clearly, and speak and listen effectively. 【 2 video-recorded speeches; 2 papers; 1 communication journal; 3 proctored pen-&-paper exams 】	Strom	3
CMST 341 Communication in the Workplace (Requires access and use of a video recorder to record oral presentation and Interview) Theoretical understanding of the contemporary workplace as a system of human forces and communication. Interpersonal communication skills for productive worklife. Professional presentations. Prerequisite: CMST 192 or equivalent. 【 3 proctored exams; 5 Case Analyses; 1 Interview Assignment ; 1 Oral Presentation 】	Ross	3
COLL 110 Reading/Study Strategies Analysis and development of problem-solving strategies designed to organize, record, and review information relating to college course work. Application of problem solving strategies, study strategies, note taking and test taking to enhance individual learning experiences and to prepare for examinations in college course work. 【 quizzes; assignments; discussions; midterm and final exams 】	Williams	2

Course/Description	Faculty	Credits
COLL 120 Instruction and practice in strategies to enhance critical reading and reading flexibility through the application of efficient comprehension strategies and vocabulary development.	Williams	2
ENGL 191 [CORE 1] Intro to Rhetorical and Analytical Writing Analytical reading, writing, and critical reasoning in various rhetorical situations. Argumentative research project comprising analysis and interpretation of information, texts, and perspectives. 【 Written discussion questions; weekly reading & journal assignments; 3 papers with analysis, research, and documentation; annotated bibliography】	Farrah	4
HIST 106 (MGM) Global History Studies in multicultural, women and minority history suitable for the MGM and/or general education requirement. May be repeated with different instructor and subject. 【 Complete workbook】	Winkler-Morey	3
MKTG 320 Introduction to Marketing Analysis, planning, and control of marketing functions with reference to ethical, social, political, economic, technological, and global forces.	Klemz	3
MKTG 402 Product and Price Management Product and price management in marketing decision-making; new product development; product/brand management; pricing policies. Prerequisite: MKTG 320 【 4 Exams】	Klemz	3

Course/Description	Faculty	Credits
PHIL 194 (CORE 2) Reasoning about human values, human knowledge and our place in the scheme of things. Conceptual analysis, identifying and analyzing arguments, and recognizing fallacious reasoning. 3 Cr. F, S, SUM. 【 14 proctored quizzes】	Nuccetelli	3
PSY 115 Intro to Psychology Survey of contemporary scientific psychology. Includes: biological bases of behavior, cognitive mechanisms, learning/behavioral adaptation, development, social influences, personality, disorders, and treatment. 【 11-17 proctored online exams】	Jazwinski	3
PSY 270 Social Psychology Attitudes, social cognition, attraction, aggression, altruism, prejudice, intimate relationships, the self, and group dynamics. Prereq.: 115 or instructor's permission. 【 14 proctored online exams】	Jazwinski	3
SOC 160 Principles of Sociology Human social interaction, including culture, groups, group and personality, group interaction, community, social institutions, cultural change, social disorganization. 【 3 proctored pen-&-paper exams; 2 book reports; 1 video report; 1 paper】	Davis	3
SOC 195 Democratic Citizenship Variability in how democracy is implemented and defined across social institutions, social classes, and societies. Rights and responsibilities of citizens, institutions and governing bodies. Skills in responsible, participatory citizenship. 【 3 proctored pen-&-paper exams; 2 book reports; 4 short essays】	Davis	3
SOC 268 (MGM & Racial Issues) Race & Ethnicity An overview of the social, historical, and cultural experiences of ethnic and racial groups in the United States, specifically African-Americans, American Indians, Arab-Americans, Asian-Americans, and Latinos/as. Prereq: 111 or 160. 3 Cr. F.	Freilinger	3	