What's New in Gerontology?

Looking for a high-demand, leadership career opportunity?

Executive Health Care Administration Certificate

The Executive Health Care Administration Certificate at SCSU pairs practical business and administration skills with essential knowledge of aging needed to effectively manage and coordinate work in nursing home, assisted living, and other health care settings. The certificate prepares students to take the licensure exam for assisted living and nursing home administrators as required by the state of Minnesota. Click for more information. Executive Health Care Administration Certificate

Completion of the Executive Health Care Administration Certificate also fulfills the requirements for the Gerontology Minor. For more information, contact Dr. Phyllis Greenberg (pagreenberg@stcloudstate.edu).

Featured Fall 2024 Courses

Introduction to Gerontology

GERO 208-54- Asynchronous Online

What does aging mean to you? The processes of aging affects each of us in different ways, including biologically, psychologically, and socially. This class introduces the interdisciplinary study of human aging and provides a view of the world's rapidly aging population.

Meets Liberal Education Goal Area 5 & Diversity Requirements

Aging Policies and Programs

GERO 411/511

Examine the range and variety of services and programs for the older population, especially those supported and/or funded under the policy, administrative, fiscal, or legislative control of federal, state, and local governments.

Hybrid: Asynchronous + 5 synchronous sessions 5:30– 8:20 pm T (8/27; 9/17; 10/15; 11/5; 12/3) May be taken concurrently with GERO 470

Ethics in Gerontology and Geriatrics

GERO 420/520- Asynchronous Online

Driving with dementia? Self-neglect? Right to refuse treatment? What do I do if...? Using case studies, current literature and real-life scenarios, we will explore a wide range of ethical dilemmas in aging practice and policy from individual, professional, and societal levels.

Meets Liberal Education Goal Area 9 & Diversity Requirements

Dementia and Aging

GERO 425/525

What is the difference between Alzheimer's and dementia? What should you know about working with or caring for a person with dementia? Learn about the nature, causes and symptoms of dementia, as well as the impact it can have on individuals, families and caregivers.

Hybrid: Asynchronous + 5 synchronous sessions 5:30– 8:20 pm M (8/26; 9/16; 9/30; 10/21; 11/4)

Global Aging

GERO 470/570

Aging is a global phenomenon (e.g. demographic trends, historical influences and the lived experience). The intersection of factors such as gender, ethnicity, geography, and class are explored.

Hybrid: Asynchronous + 5 synchronous sessions 5:30– 8:20 pm T (9/3; 9/24; 10/8; 10/29; 11/19) May be taken concurrently with GERO 411 & 511

Meets Liberal Education Goal Area 5, 8, & Diversity Requirements

Aging and Community

GERO 630

Aging & Community: Current issues in Social Gerontology, Culture & Diversity. This course explores the diverse experience of human aging in the U.S. and globally, with a primary focus on the interpersonal and instrumental concerns related to aging within different communities.

Hybrid: Asynchronous + 5 synchronous sessions 5:30– 8:20 pm M (9/9; 9/23; 10/7; 10/28; 12/2) May be taken concurrently with GERO 525
