

Dr. Heather W. Hackman

Associate Professor
Human Relations and Multicultural Education
St. Cloud State University
A282 Education Building
720 Fourth Avenue South
St. Cloud, MN 56301-4498
Office: 320.308.4095
Fax: 320.308.4221
E-mail: hwhackman@stcloudstate.edu

Education

- Ed.D. from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst in 2000.

Program Areas

- Doctoral courses in Higher Education Administration
- Undergraduate courses in Human Relations and Multicultural Education

Research/Interest Areas

- Social Justice Education Theory and Practice
- LGBT Issues in Multicultural Education
- E-12 Professional Development around Anti-Racism and White Privilege Education

Biography

Dr. Heather W. Hackman teaches courses in social justice and multicultural education, heterosexism and homophobia in the U.S., race and racism in the U.S., and oppression and social change. She has been teaching at St. Cloud State University since obtaining her doctorate in 2000. Dr. Hackman has consulted locally and nationally on issues of racism and white privilege, LGBT issues in education, and power issues in education. She has served as president of Minnesota NAME and is currently a board member for Rainbow Families.

Courses Taught

HIED 804 Diversity and Social Justice in Higher Education