Samantha Riehle, daughter of Joanne and David Riehle of Grand Rapids, has been selected as the first drum major of the St. Cloud State University Husky Sports Band.

Riehle graduated from Grand Rapids High School where she played saxophone and clarinet under the direction of Dale Gunderson and Mark Saiger. She is currently a music education major at St. Cloud State and the recipient of both the University Founders Scholarship and the Harris Education Scholarship.

The Husky Sports Band provides musical performances for athletic and campus events at St. Cloud State. The band provides a challenging and exciting musical atmosphere for the members and promotes school spirit for the campus community. For more information, contact director Glen Tuomaala at 308-3201.
