St. Cloud State University's Husky Dixieland Band will perform its first virtual concert at 8 p.m. Feb. 23. The concert will be viewable at www.StCloudState.edu/LiveEvents/Ritsche

Ritsche Auditorium was recently fitted with the technology and equipment to produce a virtual concert. The Dixieland Band's performance will be the first broadcast to the Internet since the changes at Ritsche.

It is also the first Internet-broadcast concert for the Minnesota State Colleges and Universities system, according to Husky Sports Band Director Glen Tuomaala.

The band will take requests via e-mail and respond during the concert.

The concert will consist of classic Dixieland tunes such as "When the Saints Go Marching In," "St. James Infirmary," "Hello Dolly," "That's a Plenty" and "Down by the Riverside."

Song requests should be made at band@StCloudState.edu. The virtual concert is free.
