

St. Cloud State University Department of Music Faculty

The Department of Music at St. Cloud State University is the flagship music department of the state university system in Minnesota. Its faculty of 19 full-time and 7 part-time specialists offer a comprehensive musical education to over 100 undergraduate and 30 graduate students. SCSU music students receive instruction from a faculty with extensive international and national teaching experience. The music department traditionally holds a prominent role in music education in Minnesota, and has placed 100 percent of its music education graduates into school music programs in recent years.

Acknowledgments

SCSU Wind Ensemble Conductor Richard K. Hansen offers a special thank you to all student musicians who participated in the St. Cloud State University American Portraits Concert. Appreciation is extended to family and friends of these musicians, who have constantly supported the students in their endeavors. This concert is dedicated to service veterans who have so faithfully contributed their life's work and lives to our freedom.

The Wind Ensemble

The Wind Ensemble is St. Cloud State University's premiere concert band ensemble. Comprised of the finest wind and percussion musicians on campus, this ensemble is committed to performing the highest quality music for wind band, ranging from time honored classics to world premieres of new music. The band is nationally recognized with its frequent performances for the national, regional, and state professional conventions including the 2007 American Bandmasters Association convention in California.

This group annually hosts wind band festivals and has taken international tours of Scandinavia, Russia, and Mexico, where it made a historic national radio broadcast from Mexico City. The Wind Ensemble is known as one of America's most innovative university ensembles with its imaginative concert programming, fostering of cutting edge music, unique outreach programs in music education, and its commitment to making music meaningful to communities and within people's lives.

St. Cloud State Bands

St. Cloud State University Wind Bands provide students memorable and valuable musical and life experiences. We offer a dynamic and diversified program of wind groups for musicians of varying skill levels. Regardless of your experience, there is an ensemble here for you. Be a part of the rich SCSU Wind Band tradition.
