

Partner Interview

Answer the following questions and then share them with your co-teaching partner:

What is the hardest time of the day for you?

When do you feel rushed?

When do you think you need more help?

When is the most difficult time for the students?

What are some ways you would like to change your schedule?

What aspect of your schedule works very well for you?

What tip would you give a new co-teacher about scheduling?

What have you learned about yourself upon entering this experience?
