

16 July, 2002

Briefly: Faculty speech tackles

hanging

Times staff report

A St. Cloud State University faculty member will speak at Whitney Senior Center on Thursday.

Marlo Belschner will speak at 9:30 a.m. on "The Culture of Hanging in Shakespeare and Marlowe."

The two-hour presentation is free and open to the public. It is sponsored by the Minnesota Humanities Commission, which awarded Belschner a $2,500 grant to support her research on the culture of hanging in literary texts.

For details call 650-3081.