

Feb. 5, 2003

Feds give SCSU $100-K for job training, economic development -- Republican Congressman Mark Kennedy says the federal government has given St. Cloud State University a 100-thousand dollar grant. Kennedy says the money will help St. Cloud State provide for training, research and information for economic development in the St. Cloud area. Kennedy says he hopes the grant will help promote economic development and more jobs for the area.