

Wednesday, January 21, 2004

SCSU to digitize old photos for new website -- St. Cloud State University will use a grant from the state to digitize more than six-thousand unique photographs from across the state. Dean of Learning Resources at St. Cloud State University Christy Tornquist says the University in partnership with the Minnesota Digital Library Coalition will create "Minnesota Reflections". Tornquist says they're mainly seeking photos, negatives, or slides from historical societies and libraries across the state.