St. Cloud State University
2012-2013 Academic Year
Residential Life Room and Dinning Rates
Proposed Semester Rate Range

Rates as listed are per student
Specific rooms with different amenities carry additional fees not noted here.
For more information, contact Department of Residential Life

Room Rates	2012-13 Proposed Range
Double Room	$2104 - $2219
Single Room	$3052 - $3075
Case, Hill, Lawrence, and Shoemaker North (Renovated residence halls)
Double Room	$2295 - $2338
Single Room	$3230 - $3246
Stateview Apts	$2670 -$2744

Stateview apartments come unfurnished, but do have all kitchen appliances, and air conditioning. Stateview students have priority for A lot parking spaces.

Coborn Plaza Apts	(Prices reflect half an academic year agreement period or appx. 5 Months)
4 Bedroom unit, per student	$3550-$3619
2 Bedroom unit, per student	$3778-$3796
1 Bedroom unit	$3917-$3974
Studio unit	$3861-$3916
Indoor Garage Parking Pass	$305-$320 *separate agreement

Coborn Plaza Apartment and Parking agreements begin Aug 1, 2012 and extend through May 31, 2013. Full 12 month agreements are also available.

Dinning Plans

Husky Anytime	$1285-$1345, includes $200 Munch Money
Husky 14	$1267-$1334, includes $200 Munch Money – Any 14 meals per week
Husky 160	$1254 - $1318, includes $100 Munch Money- Any 160 meals per semester
Husky To Go	$ 550-$576, includes $300 Munch Money – Any 3 meals per week available only to University contracted apartment students

Husky 160 is the only plan that permits an exchange rate of $5 of Munch Money per meal. Exchanges can be made twice a semester as posted by the Department of Residential Life. Exchanged Munch Money does not rollover from one semester to the next.

Dinning plans are separate from room agreements. All first year residential students are required to have a residential dinning plan.

All 2012-2013 rates are proposed ranges. Student consultation will take place before final proposed rates are developed and forwarded to the MnSCU Board of Directors for approval during the spring 2012 semester.

PROPOSED