

Social Responsibility Student Activism Award Spring 2011

Selected Notes on the Recipients' Activities and Involvement

Angie Brown

- Active in the St. Cloud and Minneapolis communities working toward social justice.
- Graduate Assistant for the Pathways Program for Incarcerated students at SCSU.
- Intern for the Trans Youth Support Network and the Avenues for Homeless Youth Host Home Program. And working on community organizing within the LGBTQ movement.
- Presenter at the Global Social Responsibility Conference 2010. And has been invited to speak at several other conferences.
- Selected as a participant in a human rights delegation to Rwanda this summer through Global Youth Connect.
- Organized many fun events through the organizations that she is committed to.

Angie Wambua

- Revitalized the Social Responsibility Student Organization
- Led and organized an anti-war peace rally, Democracy Now event.
- International Student Peer Advisor
- Helped out at the Global Social Responsibility Conference 2009 and 2010.
- Has been a Graduate Assistant in the SOC/ANTH department.

Nabila Bhatti

- Graduate Assistant I the Social Responsibility Program
- Planned, organized and participated in the Global Social Responsibility Conference 2009 and 2010.
- Secretary of the Social Responsibility Student Organization.
- Helped to organize and take part in the Peace Rally last October.
- A great promoter of many worthwhile events both on campus and in the community.
- Presenter at the Social Justice and Peace Conference for Youth.
- Panel Participant for the Interconnectedness of Social Justice, Peace and the Environment at the Intersectionality-themed Women and Gender Studies Conference.
- Volunteered with the Pakistan Student Association at SCSU
- Awarded the Jacobson Scholarship
- Shows that she is a true activist in everything that she does.

Nancy Shedrack Anwary

- Organized the Social Responsibility students to participate at a peaceful anti-war demonstration.
- Promoted the Social Responsibility Student Org.
- Treasurer of the SRSO
- Member in African Students Association.
- Educated and raised awareness by showing informational documentaries and films.
- Graduate Assistant in the Soc. Resp. program and has led in organizing and planning of the annual conference.
- Participated in a panel and shared different environmental issues in Tanzania.
- Participated in Celebrating Campus Connections.
- A very smart 4.0 Graduate Student