Dear Ms. Jones:

I am writing to say how much I enjoyed our conversation about the Youth Services position which is available in your agency. I am very interested in joining your organization and I believe I have the communication and management skills necessary to make a valuable contribution.

As you pointed out in the interview, the ability to communicate effectively with young people from a wide variety of socioeconomic and cultural backgrounds is an essential requirement of the position. During my part-time work and internship experiences, I had many opportunities to plan and schedule wellness and leadership development activities for adolescents from black, hispanic and white neighborhoods. This allowed me to develop both my management and cross-cultural communication skills.

Once again, let me state that I am very interested in the Youth Services position and feel confident about the contribution I could make to your agency. I look forward to exploring this opportunity further with you. I want to thank you for your time and consideration. I will call you next week to follow up on our interview.

Sincerely,

Raymond Granada
