

Study Abroad Summer 2019

Two Opportunities to Study Abroad with the Communication Studies Department

1. England/Edinburgh:

In August, earn 3 credits while living in Alnwick Castle and attending the Edinburgh Fringe Festival! The Edinburgh Fringe Festival is the oldest and most prestigious fringe festival in the world. Students will have the opportunity to see world-class performances from all corners of the globe while touring the amazing city of Edinburgh. Students will be based out of our Alnwick campus, which will also allow students the opportunity to experience the Alnwick Castle and town. Edinburgh is about 2 hours away from the castle, so students will have ample time to see both sites. The Edinburgh Fringe Festival is a truly international festival. Not only will students experience British culture, they will engage with performance work from around the globe. This is an exciting opportunity for students to understand themselves in context with a larger reality! This is not a program you will want to miss out on!

2. Nelson Mandela University, South Africa:

In July, earn 6 credits while studying at Nelson Mandela University in Port Elizabeth South Africa. We will spend one month taking two classes. One will be about South African perspectives on conflict management the other will feature a community engagement project in local townships. During the community engagement project we will be part of a “summer camp” for grade school children teaching them about conflict management and building leadership skills. We will also visit the apartheid museum, take a safari, learn about African culture. The classes you take will apply directly to the Applied Relational Conflict Management minor, one of the CMST majors, of the CMST intercultural minor.
