

PREPARING TRANSFORMATIVE, LIBERATORY EDUCATION PROFESSIONALS

committed to:

- » Access, inclusion, anti-racism, diversity, equity, and opportunity
- » Accountability that improves teaching and learning
- » Engaged and innovative teacher/scholars
- » Experiential and applied lifelong learning
- » Global perspectives and culturally sustaining practices
- » Robust community partnerships
- » Student-centered, clinically-focused programming

as they:

- » Become engaged citizens who embrace and value cultural and linguistic diversity
- » Construct knowledge, originate ideas, and develop innovative solutions
- » Cooperate and collaborate with others in multiple contexts
- » Display inquiry and curiosity for learning
- » Demonstrate understanding through authentic assessment
- » Meet well-defined academic standards who are:

- » Advocates and change agents for equity and justice in education
- » Caring and ethical professionals who focus on the whole learner
- » Collaborative leaders
- » Creative and flexible problem solvers
- » Effective in technology-pedagogical knowledge interaction
- » Reflective practitioners
- » Skilled in pedagogical content knowledge interaction