POLICY/PROCEDURE:

Courses numbered from 500 to 899 may be used to satisfy the requirements of graduate degrees. Courses open only to graduate students are numbered 600 to 699. Courses open only to doctoral students are numbered 800-899. Many courses carry double numbers, e.g., 450/550. These courses are open to advanced undergraduate and to graduate students. To receive graduate credit, the student must register for the 5xx number.

- A student who has completed a course at the 400 level may not take that same course at the 500 level.
- Courses numbered in the 300, 400, 500, and 600 series are creditable in the fifth-year program.
- Courses carrying numbers at the 100 or 200 level may not be included in this program.
