DE-ESCALATION AND MANAGING CONFLICT THROUGH COMMUNICATION

12:30 p.m. – 1:30 p.m.

Centennial Hall, Room 115

Sponsored by the Public Safety and Security

This workshop is designed to teach people to de-escalate potentially violent situations through interpersonal communication. The training will explore how anger and violence interplay, including opportunities for self-assessment of personal styles. Participants will develop a clear understanding of how to assess the potential for violence and respond with a diverse set of interpersonal tools and strategies designed to defuse potentially violent situations.

PRESENTERS: Jesse Cashman, Assistant Vice President for Safety and Risk Management
