MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTION

L. K. McLELAND HALL
(Classroom Building for Business)

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Classroom Building for Business to be erected at St. Cloud State College during 1966-67 be named L. K. McLeland Hall,

Mr. McLeland served as a member of the Minnesota State College Board from 1961 to 1965. During that period he evidenced sincere interest in the development and improvement of public higher education in general and St. Cloud State College in particular.

Affectionately known as "Mac", he retired in 1965 after serving for 14 years as manager of the Northern States Power Company office in St. Cloud. He was and continues to be very active in civic and community affairs. Among the offices he has held are president of the St. Cloud Chamber of Commerce, founder and president of St. Cloud Opportunities, Inc., president of the Central Minnesota Boy Scout Council, president of the St. Cloud Lions Club and a member of the board of directors of the St. Cloud Salvation Army and Executives Club. A World War I veteran, Mr. McLeland was a member of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Although retired, Mr. McLeland continues his interest in community development and in public higher education. It is appropriate that a classroom building for business at St. Cloud State College bear the name of this outstanding and highly respected business and civic leader.
