ST. CLOUD, Minn., April--Dedication ceremonies for the new School of Education Building at St. Cloud State College continue Tuesday (April 25) with a dedication banquet and the laying of the cornerstone.

The cornerstone ceremony will be at 6:15 p.m. on the east side of the building. Fred Traynor of the firm of Traynor, Hermanson and Hahn, architects of the building, will conduct the ceremony.

Dr. Irvamae Applegate, dean of the School of Education, will address some 130 guests at a 7 p.m. banquet in the Atwood Center Ballroom. Attending will be administrators, education faculty and former faculty members.

The School of Education dedication is being spread throughout the year. There was an open house in the building last October and the school has sponsored several speakers during the year.

Dr. Duane Mattheis of the U.S. Office of Education will speak at St. Cloud May 2 as part of the dedication year program.
