ST. CLOUD STATE COLLEGE

ST. CLOUD, MINNESOTA

ST. CLOUD, Minn., June -- A total of 306 graduate students are enrolled at St. Cloud State College this summer, an increase of 15 percent over last year, according to Registrar Brendan McDonald.

In all, some 1,653 students are attending the first summer session. Comparative on-campus enrollments for the past five years are: 1961 -- 1,726, 1960 -- 1,471, 1959 -- 1,462, 1958 -- 1,281, and 1957 -- 1,204. Graduate students at the college last summer numbered 266 and the 1960 enrollment was 198.

Included in this summer's enrollment are 1,419 full-time students enrolled for five or more quarter hours of credit and 213 part-time students. Twenty-one are attending workshops only.

The college's first summer session opened June 11 and will continue through July 13. A five-week second session begins July 16.

ST. CLOUD, Minn., June -- The first dormitory in a new women's residence hall complex at St. Cloud State College will be named Helen Hill Hall, according to President George F. Budd.

A member of the college faculty for 37 years, Miss Hill organized the College Chronicle, student newspaper, and served as adviser to the Chronicle, senior class and Minerva society. She also headed the faculty publicity committee and was a member of the publications board. She served without pay as executive secretary to the Alumni Association from her retirement in 1952 until last year.

Miss Hill, who lives in St. Cloud, holds a B.A. degree from the University of Minnesota and an M.A. degree from Colorado State College.

The 200-bed dormitory and an attached commons building will be completed by September.
