ST. CLOUD, Minn., May--The administrative and service offices at St. Cloud State College will begin moving next week (May 12) into their new facilities in the recently-completed Administrative Services Building, according to William Radovich, vice president for administrative affairs.

Fifteen offices now located in Whitney House, Stewart and Lawrence Halls will move to the new building, which is located at 3rd Avenue and 7th Street South. The move is expected to take four weeks, Radovich said.

The offices which will move are: auxiliary services, personnel, institutional research, admissions and records, the business office, financial aids, the post office, graduate school, high school and community college relations, information services, career planning and placement, the offices of the vice presidents for administrative affairs, academic affairs, and institutional relations and development and the president's office.
