Danza Azteca is a traditional Mexica/Aztec dance passed on from generation to generation and is a huge part of Latin@, Chican@, and Mexican families in the United States. Danza awakens consciousness for the individual on a path to find her/his identity.

Wednesday, April 29th, 2015 | 6 p.m.
Miller Center Auditorium 122 | SCSU

This documentary is the first to examine multiple communities in Minnesota that value danza for its knowledge, community building merits, empowering influence, historical memory, and other virtues that advance living a positive and fulfilling life.