Summer COURSE
POL 440
Leadership in International Public Affairs

New York City

Study and visit the United Nations and other international organizations, like the Council on Foreign Relations, Carnegie Council for Ethics in International Policy, and Human Rights Watch.

Topics examined: humanitarian intervention, the development of sanctions, human rights and refugees, and the U.N.’s role in the war on terrorism.

You will have the opportunity to explore the role of NGOs broadly in the world system and more specifically within the UN system.

Travel dates June 20-28, 2015. Approximate Cost $950*

VISIT NEW YORK CITY!

If interested in this class, please email Dr. Linda Butenhoff at lbutenhoff@stcloudstate.edu

Costs are approximate and include airfare, lodging, and some activity fees.