Students who are suspended for one year may not enroll in class for a minimum of one semester and may then submit a written appeal for early readmission.

The required information for your appeal is listed below.

- This form signed and dated.
- A letter from you to the FA Academic Affairs Committee clearly explaining the reason(s) the appeal should receive favorable consideration.
- If there were extenuating or significant circumstances that contributed to your probation and suspension, additional documentation (court records, hospitalization, military, medical, death, etc.) and/or support letters (medical provider, lawyer, mental health professional, judge, etc.) are required.
- Your signed academic success plan. Forms are available in the Academic Appeals & Probation Office.
- A letter of support for your appeal from one of the following: academic or major advisor, SCSU faculty, a member of a SCSU student support service such as Multicultural Student Services, the Center for International Studies, Counseling and Psychological Services, or Student Disability Services, etc. These may be emails, but should include contact information for the letter writer including telephone numbers.

Appeals must be submitted by the Monday two weeks before the last day of classes Fall and Spring Semester and the first Monday of August. Submit your appeal including the above information to the Academic Appeals & Probation Office electronically to aap@stcloudstate.edu, fax (320-308-5672), or mail to Academic Appeals and Probation, 210 Centennial Hall, St. Cloud State University, 720 Fourth Avenue South, St. Cloud, MN 56301.

The Academic Appeals & Probation Office will send you the appeal results by email.

Initial these statements to indicate that you have read and understand the appeal process.

_____ I understand that if this appeal is not successful, I will be required to fulfill my one year suspension in full.

_____ I understand that the decisions and recommendations of the FA Academic Affairs Committee are final.

_____ If my appeal is successful, I must meet with my advisor to discuss and implement the committee's recommendations.
