Table 19: Feeling Thermometer

"Please think of a thermometer that has a range of 0 to 100 degrees. I'd like you to rate your feelings toward some of our political leaders and other people who are in the news. Ratings on the thermometer between 50 and 100 degrees mean that you feel favorable and warm toward the person. Ratings between 0 and 50 mean that you do not feel too favorable toward the person. If we come to a person whose name you don't recognize, you don't need to rate that person. Just tell me and we will move on to the next one. If you do recognize the name, but do not feel particularly warm or cold toward the person, you would rate that person at the 50 degree mark."

IV. ABORTION QUESTIONS

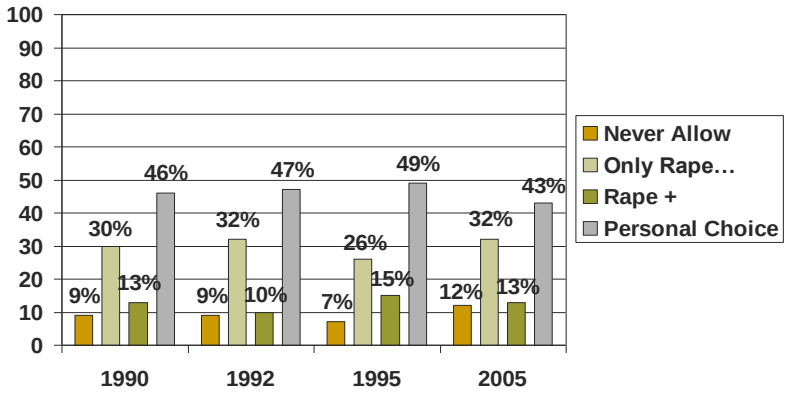
Minnesota's views concerning Abortion

Sara J. Oldakowski
Heather Schwebach

Would you please tell me if you think Minnesota law should:

1. Never allow a woman to have an abortion
2. Permit abortion only in cases of rape, incest or when the woman's life is in danger
3. Allow a woman to have a legal abortion in circumstances but only after the need for the abortion has been clearly established
4. Allow a woman to have an abortion as a matter of personal choice

Would you please tell me if you think Minnesota law should:



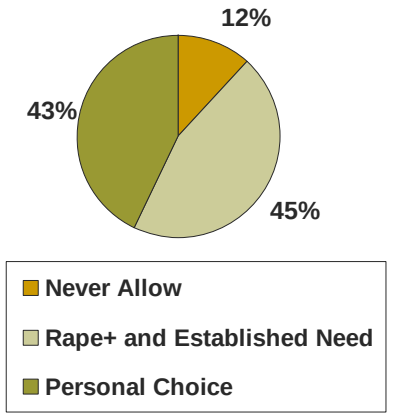
Source: SCSU Survey of Minnesota Adults, November 2005, N=567

Highlights

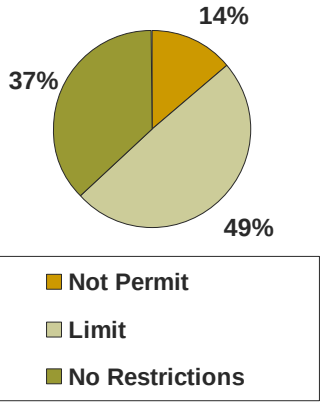
- Men and women were similar in their views, however, men were slightly more supportive of women's choice to have an abortion. (Not statistically significant.)
- One in five (22%) Republicans would never allow an abortion. While three in five (58%) Democrats believe that abortion should be a women's personal choice.
- Minnesotans ages 18-24 and 65+ are less supportive of abortions than the rest of the population. (Not statistically significant.)
- Half of Minnesotans (49%) whose combined household income was $50,000 and above, believed that abortions should be a woman's choice.

Comparing Minnesotans to the Nation

SCSU Survey of Minnesota Adults



American National Election Study



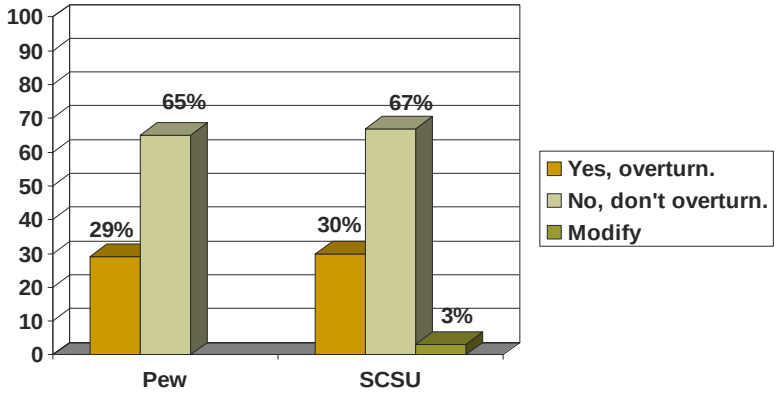
Source: SCSU Survey of Minnesota Adults, November 2005, N=567

Center for Political Studies of the Institute for Social Research, 2004, N=1179

In 1973 the Roe v. Wade decision established a women's right to an abortion. Would you like to see the Supreme Court completely overturn its Roe v. Wade decision, or not?

1. Yes, overturn.
2. No, don't overturn.
3. Modify (volunteered).

Overturn Roe v. Wade or not?



Source: SCSU Survey of Minnesota Adults, November 2005, N=567

Pew Research Center, July 2005, DK=6 [Don't knows (DK) were excluded from the SCSU Survey results and included in the Pew Research Center Survey.]

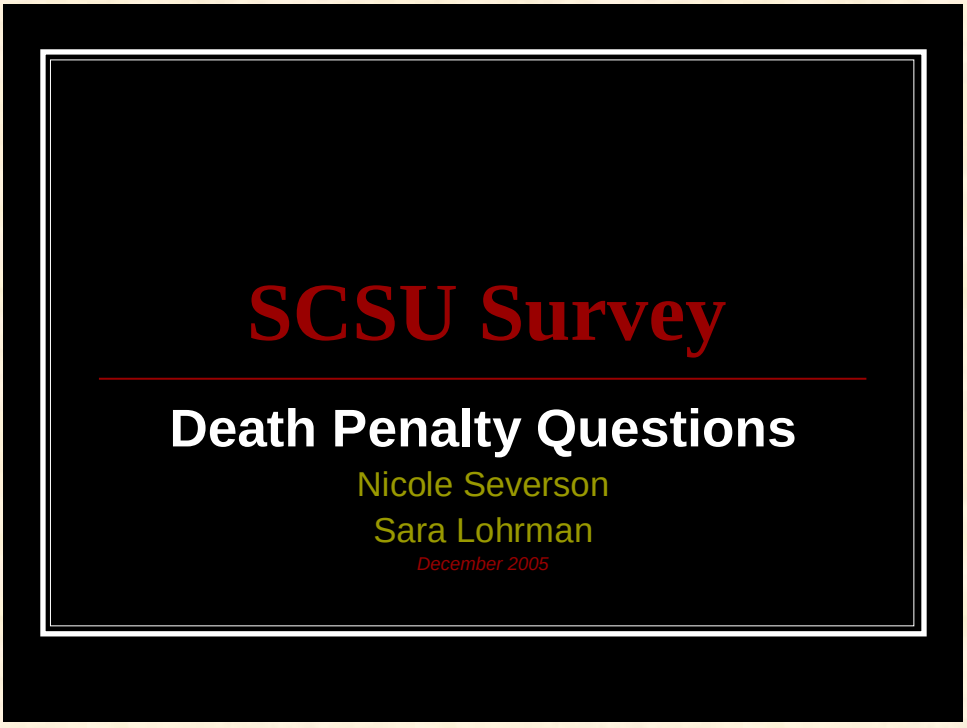
Highlights

- Three out of four (74%) Minnesotans in the metro area believe that Roe v. Wade shouldn't be overturned, which was slightly higher than those who live in greater Minnesota.
- Four of five (81%) Democrats and three out of five (60%) members of the Independence Party believe that Roe v. Wade shouldn't be overturned, while half of Republicans (46%) would like to see Roe v. Wade overturned.
- Seven out of ten (72%) Minnesotan households that make a combined income of over $50,000 believe that Roe v. Wade shouldn't be overturned, while only six out of ten (58%) Minnesotan households making a combined income of $20,000 or less, support not overturning Roe v. Wade. (Not statistically significant.)

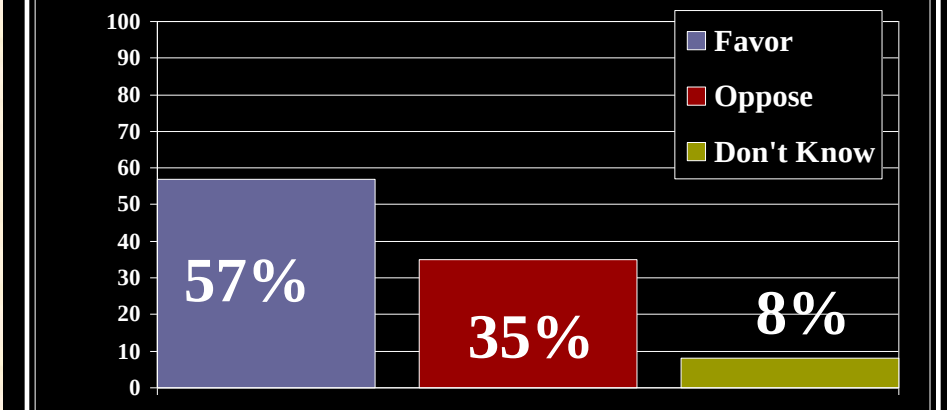
Summary

- Data shows that Minnesotans are comparable to the nation of views abortion.
- Minnesotans have stayed consistent on their views of abortion over the past 15 years.

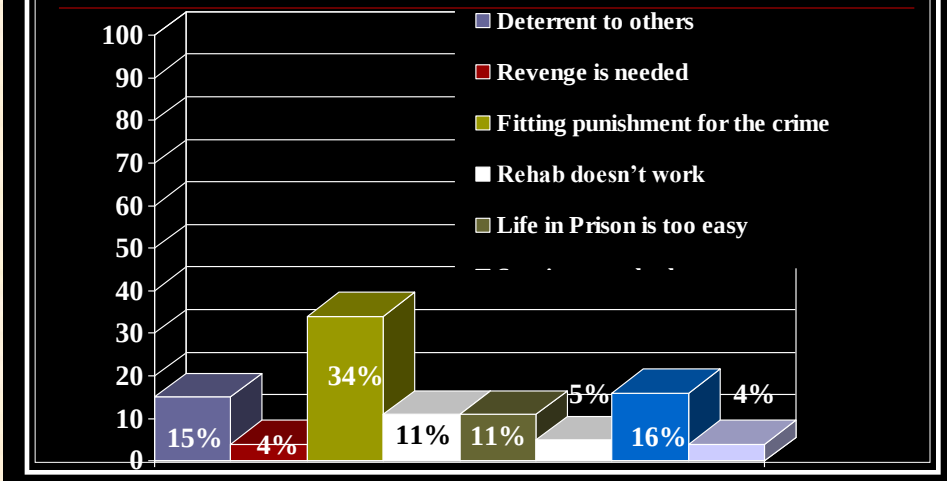
IV VIEWS ON DEATH PENALTY



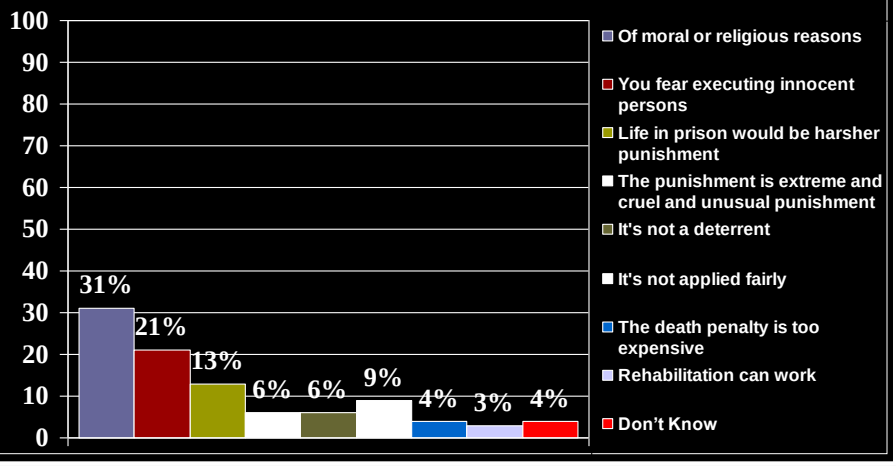
All in all, do you strongly favor, favor, oppose, or strongly oppose the death penalty for persons convicted of murder?



For you personally, what is the main reason you favor the death penalty for persons convicted of murder? Is it.....



For you personally, what is the main reason why you oppose the death penalty for persons convicted of murder? Is it because…..



Highlights and Summary

- 3 out of 4 of those who call themselves Republicans strongly favor the death penalty, whereas those who identify themselves as Democrats are split about 50-50.
  - This was our most significant finding.

- Regardless of gender, more people were in favor of the death penalty than those that opposed.
  - 2 out of 3 men are more likely to favor the death penalty, whereas 3 out of 5 women are in favor.
- Income, age, and employment had no significant effect on people's views.

Highlights and Summaries continued…….

- Favored:
  - One out of three respondents said that they wanted the punishment to fit the crime.
- Opposed:
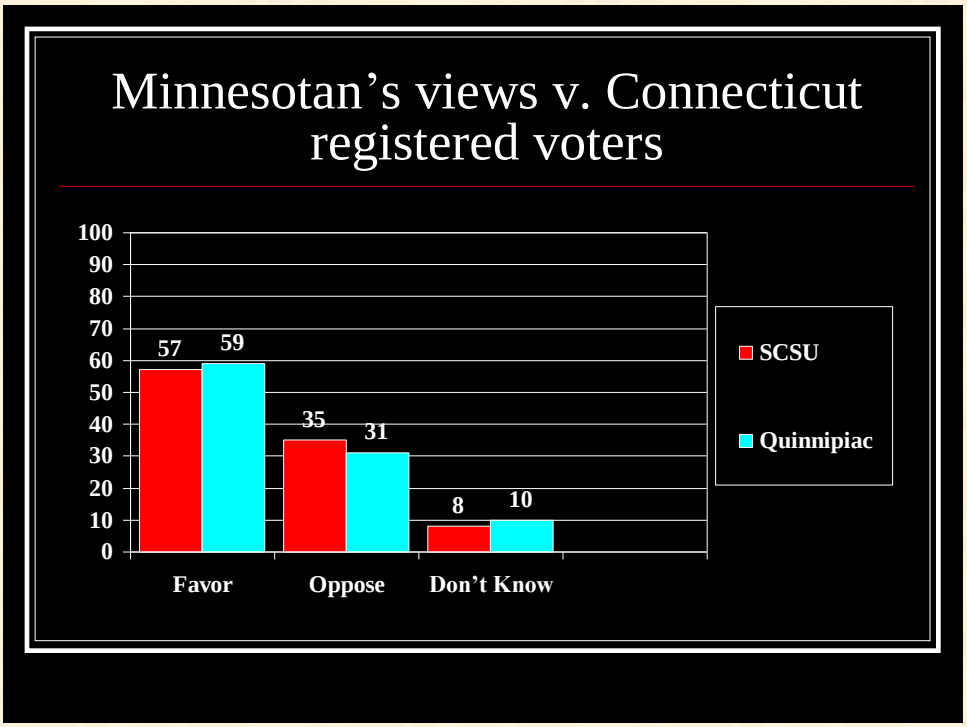
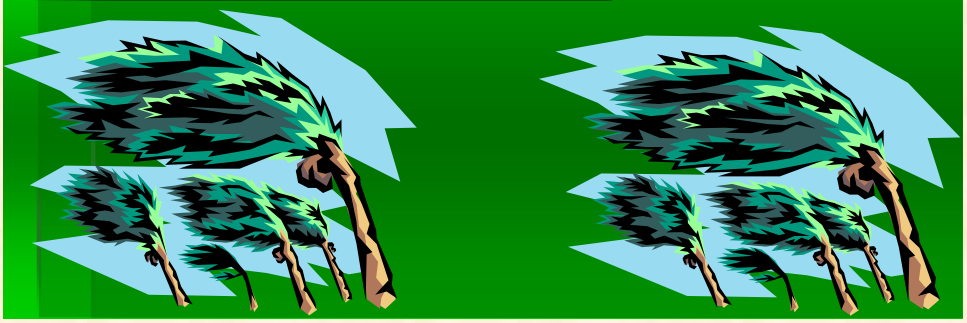
  - One out of three respondents said that they opposed the death penalty for moral or religious reasons.

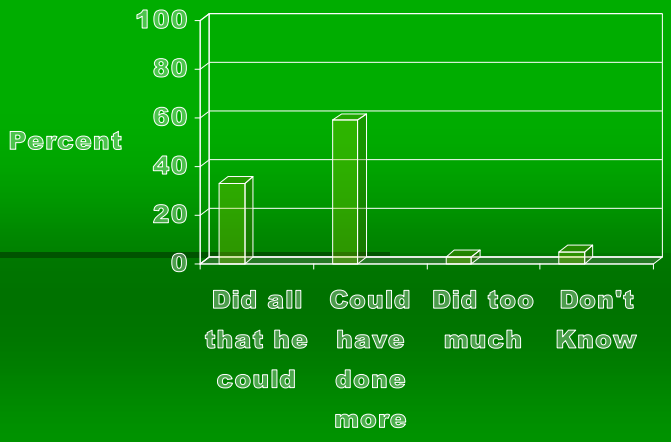


V. KATRINA RELATED QUESTIONS

Hurricane Katrina



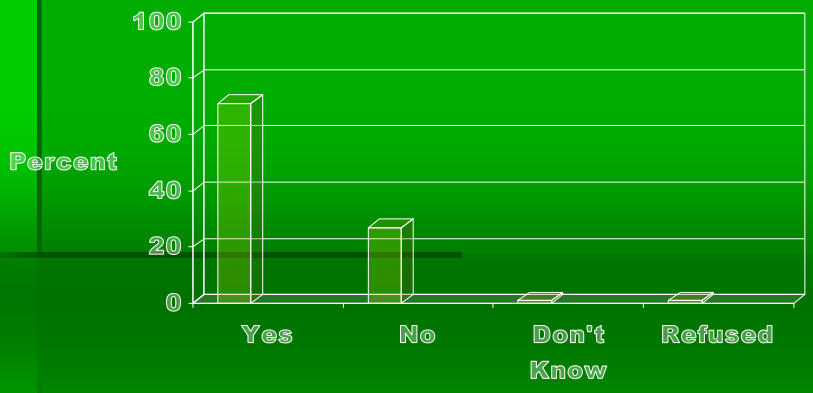
In handling the relief efforts of Hurricane Katrina, do you believe that President Bush did all that he could, could have done more, or did too much?



Highlights

- Approximately 3/4 of the Democrats feel that President Bush could have done more in the relief efforts of Hurricane Katrina.
- Roughly 2/3 of the Republicans feel that President Bush did all that he could in the relief efforts of Hurricane Katrina.

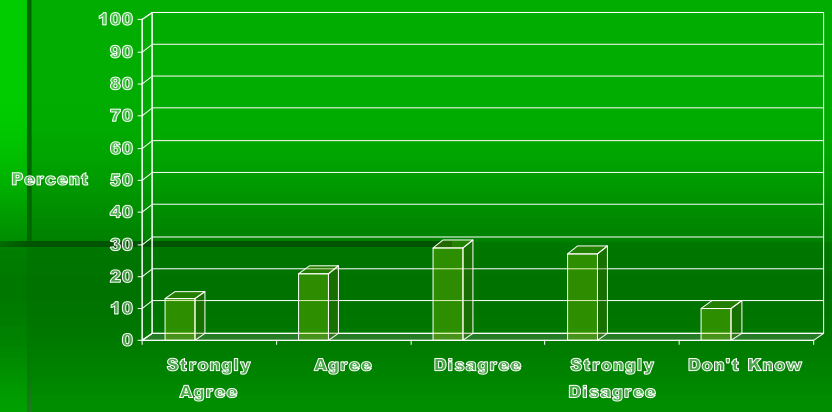
Did you make any type of donation to the relief of Hurricane Katrina, such as a monetary donation, volunteering, or any other efforts?



Highlights

- There were no statistically significant relationships prevalent in the demographics, such as age, gender, income, and party affiliation.

Do you strongly agree, agree, disagree or strongly disagree that race and class had any influence on how the Federal Government responded to Hurricane Katrina?



Highlights

- Approximately 1/3 of the respondents felt that race was a factor in the relief efforts made by the federal government.
- Nearly 2/3 of the respondents felt that race was not a factor in the relief efforts made by the federal government.
- Generally it seems that Republicans do not feel that race was a factor in the relief efforts made by the federal government, whereas Democrats seem to be split on how they feel in concern to race as a factor.
