Hearings

Open Gallery

- Jen Furan and Jen Matzke (Res Life and Public Safety)
 - Started safety walks in the south side, survey.
 - Wanted to know student perceptions of safety in the south side neighborhood.
 - Survey data showed that they felt safe walking in the southside during the daylight
 - Survey data showed that the perception of safety decreases during the night-time, but the majority still felt safe.
 - Students liked living in the south side neighborhood because it is close to campus.
 - Illegal parking, and litter/garbage is the biggest issues for students living in the south side.
 - Many students were not aware of the renting 101 website.
 - Student Government members are able to download the Public Safety App early before it goes live in the spring semester.
 - Friend walk is a new feature where you can ping a friend and they can see where you are in the app.
 - Public Safety is looking for feedback from Student Government on the app.
 - Feedback
 - The blue button on the app will only contact public safety and will only work on campus.
 - There is an emergency contact button that can call 911 for you.
 - There is no delay in calling Public safety with the button so accidental presses will still go to public safety.
 - The app will require a data plan if there is no WiFi
 - Public Safety is not able to get escort requests from the app at this time.

- There is information in the app for physical and emotional safety in the app

 - Best way for students to be heard: Be engaged, use Students United,
 - Common problems that they have seen? Textbooks, Affirmative Consent, learning what resolutions are University and what ones are at a State level.
 - Other campuses are doing a good job on campus climate. Their new lead Diversity is working on a climate survey and plans on visiting campuses.
- Jeffery Hilligoss and staff (Chartwell's district manager)
 - Commuter students can add meal plans to their student accounts and not pay for them with cash.
 - Chartwell's uses chatback(texting), happy or not, and Surveys to solicit student feedback.
 - Chartwell's hosts a variety of events for students.
 - Feedback
 - Chartwell's got rid of Pizza Hut because it was on of the lowest performers and the contract was up.
 - Subway is gone because of the contract was up. They believe that subway only did so well because the others were not as good.
 - Open invitation to student government to have a free meal at Garvey.
 - Garvey meals run on a 4-week cycle.
 - Garvey hours are based on head count.
 - Left over food is going to go to the new bioreactors once it is set up.
 - You can only order Chartwell's in Atwood, Stewart, miller, and herb brooks.
 - Chartwell's signed a partnership with the University for a food recovery network. It is just getting started. Currently Chartwell's is only allowed to hold on to the food for 3 days.
 - Chartwell's will make on the fly adjustments to food options. It is difficult to make changes when you receive contradictory opinions.
