II. Hearings

- a. Open Gallery I
 - i. Nancy Mills

Nancy talked about the academic policy group that meets every Tuesday. Senator Vieau is the representative for Student Government. This Group considers policies and issues that have been run into, so it can be fixed. This group does not make policy, it just shapes them for better use. One major project that they are working on includes the official complaint procedure for students. At this time, students and faculty find the procedure intimidating. Another project they are working on, which is in the final stages, a posthumous degree for students that pass away during their college years. The group is also looking at registration appeals and how these are being used.

Questions:

Senator Bryson: When you are talking about Incomplete are you talking about an incomplete class or graduation

Nancy: She is talking about an incomplete class. The group is looking at how it can be completed for students.

Chair Uecker: Was wondering if there would be a policy put into place for professors to be required to allow an incomplete.

Nancy: There are limits that they can force a professor to grade in certain ways.
