Bounce Back Project: Promoting Health Through Happiness

Learn about resiliency tools that are quick and easy to use and can make a difference in your happiness and overall well-being. These tools can help adjust your outlook and live life more fully. This session will provide information on past Bounce Back community and school projects as well as collaborative conversation on potential ways to integrate the Bounce Back Project message into our work. This event is co-sponsored by SCSU Health and Wellness Committee.

Presenter: Melissa Pribyl, MSN, RN, Community Health and Wellness Specialist, CentraCare Health-Monticello

Bounce Back Project: Next Step

This session will provide information on past community and school projects and collaborative conversation on potential ways to integrate the Bounce Back Project message into our work. This event is co-sponsored by SCSU Health and Wellness Committee.

Facilitators: Melissa Pribyl and Corrie Beckermann
Students’ Sense of Belonging as a Predictor of Retention

A sense of belonging in college is recognized as a key component of student retention and success. In this presentation, we will describe the development of a Belonging Index – a predictive measurement that is strongly related to retention – that helps us identify and connect with students who do not feel integrated into the campus community.

Facilitators: Glenn Davis, Melissa Hanzsek-Brill, Mark Petzold, and David Robinson

Resource Fair

Join us in learning about campus resources available to help our students. Representative from numerous campus organizations will be present to provide information and to answer questions. Our hope is that this fair will help us interact more effectively with our students and have a positive impact on student retention.

Husky Spirit Social Gathering

Let’s have some fun! We are taking over the Atwood Underground. Bowling, ping-pong and billiards are available and free! Join us to socialize and play with your colleagues. Get your bowling teams ready. Challenge your dean or supervisor to a game of ping-pong. Which college will be the winner? Light lunch provided. All are welcome!

Quality Matters: Improving Your Online Course

This workshop explores the QM Rubric and provides a framework to improve the quality of online and blended courses. Participants use the QM Rubric to review their own course using the QM Essential Standards. As part of the workshop, participants review course policies, general navigation, course alignment, and basic accessibility among other things. Throughout this workshop, participants receive feedback from their peers as well as the workshop facilitator. Each participant creates a course improvement plan to use for future course improvements once the workshop has concluded. This workshop is intended for faculty who have an online or blended course to work on during this workshop. It is not for developing a course from scratch.
SCSU Assessment 101

In this session, we’ll cover the basics of assessment in the classroom and expectations regarding department and LEP assessment, and discuss what instructors can do to integrate assessment into their courses in ways that are both easy and useful. While this workshop is intended for first-year instructors, all are welcome to attend.

Facilitators: David Switzer and Holy Evers

Demystifying Grant-Getting

Join this interactive panel discussion to learn about grant-getting from faculty and staff who have been successful in securing funding and have experience serving as a proposal reviewer. Bring your questions and come prepared to learn/discuss:
- Strategies to develop compelling and competitive proposals
- Proposal review process and the reviewers perspective
- Lessons learned in grant-getting
- Resources available to grant-getters

Panelists: Mark Muniz, SRCA Committee member and experienced external grant-getter, Yongli “Julianna“ Zhao, FIG Short-term Committee member and Marina Cetkovic-Cvrlje, experienced grant-getter and faculty mentor

Facilitator: Matt Julius, previous FIG Research Chair and experienced external grant-getter

Advising at St. Cloud State University

Academic advising is one of the few interactions students have with faculty outside of the classroom and it can be an extremely impactful experience. The goal of this presentation is to ensure that we are making the most of these advising interactions. We will review how academic advising is structured at St. Cloud State, our approach to advising, the responsibilities of faculty advisors, and advising resources. Special emphasis will be placed on how we leverage our student success platform, Navigate (Student Success Collaborative).

Facilitators: Liz Kalinowski Ohrt and Sarah Petitto
Accessibility is Everyone’s Responsibility: From Accommodations to Accessibility

What is the difference between a course accommodation and an accessible course? Discover the services offered by Student Accessibility Services, and how the Academic Technologies Team can help you create a more inclusive learning environment by removing barriers in your face-to-face, blended/hybrid, and online courses. We are also excited to share information about our new captioning request process, funded by Minnesota State and St. Cloud State University.

Facilitators: Sara Grachek and Andria Belisle

How can I put our Husky Compact to use?

SCSU is in the 4th year of implementing Our Husky Compact. If you’ve wondered what OHC is and how to incorporate it into your classes or programs, this session is for you! We’ll go over what Our Husky Compact is (and isn’t!), introduce you to the Dimension of the Year, and provide loads of examples of how OHC is already being used all over campus.

Facilitator: Kristian Twombly

Social Gathering

Join us at Beaver Island Brewing Company for a faculty and staff pizza and beer party. We supply the pizza, you buy the beer! The taproom will have Selke on tap in addition to other options. In partnership with St. Cloud State University, Beaver Island Brewing Company crafted Selke to celebrate achievement, community, and excellence in our home town. Root beer is also available. We look forward to toasting the start of the new semester with everyone!

Location: Beaver Island Brewing 216 6th Ave S, St. Cloud MN 56301

ARPAC: Anti-Racist Pedagogy Across the Curriculum

In this session, faculty who have completed the ARPAC Institute will share their success stories and challenges; provide examples of how they've applied anti-racist pedagogy to their classes; discuss their personal growth, development, and thinking about social positioning; and speak about the experience of the cross-campus 2018 ARPAC Institute. Participants will consider ways that anti-racist pedagogy can be applied in their own disciplines and will learn about opportunities to engage in the work.

Facilitators: Debra Leigh, Mary Clifford, and Melissa Prescott.

Life Happens—College Edition: An Economics and Access to Resources Exercise

Life Happens, an interactive workshop created and facilitated by Dr. Tracy Ore, is designed to promote critical thinking and meaningful conversation around the impact of economic inequality on our students and our campus community. This exercise is intended to aid participants in understanding the influence of socioeconomic status on an individual student’s life chances, including their success at SCSU. All are welcome to attend. Join us following the session for a Life Happens Soup Lunch.

Facilitator: Tracy Ore
