The St. Cloud State University Women’s Center Presents

2016 NATIONAL WOMEN’S HISTORY MONTH

FILM SCREENINGS OF She’s Beautiful When She’s Angry

MARCH 16:
Women’s Center Fundraiser and Film Screening of
She’s Beautiful When She’s Angry
7:00 to 9:00 p.m. (doors open at 6:30)
Red Carpet Event Center, downtown St. Cloud, MN
Call the Women’s Center to RSVP or for more information (320.308.4958)

The film resurrects the buried history of the outrageous, often brilliant women who founded the modern women’s movement from 1966 to 1971, not glamorizing nor shying away from controversies around race, sexual orientation or leadership and power in the early years of the 2nd wave women’s movement. www.shesbeautifulwhenshesangry.com/the-film

In Tumultuous Times: Health, Reproductive Justice, and the Power of Campus and Youth Organizing
11:00 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. • Atwood Theatre

Kelley Robinson leads and serves as the public spokesperson for Planned Parenthood Generation, the National Youth & Campus Engagement program for Planned Parenthood Federation of America. Join us for an inspiring conversation about reproductive justice, the resolve of Planned Parenthood to serve young and low income people, the necessity of affordable and accessible health care, and the power of campus and youth organizing.

MARCH 31
Bye Felipe: Fighting Back Against Sexist Harassment Online
5:00 to 6:30 p.m. • Atwood Theatre, Atwood Memorial Center

Join us as the creator of Bye Felipe talks about why and how the site went viral, how on-line harassment is connected to street harassment and sexual assault and what we can do to challenge and change the current state of on-line harassment.

Alexandra Tweten is a former Ms. intern and SCSU Women’s Studies Alum who lives in Los Angeles and has been online dating as a feminist since 2010. She now works as an operations coordinator for Live Nation.
