Calendar of Events

March 10 - March 30
Women's Lives: A Patchwork
A visual display depicting the lives of a sampling of women in the 19th and 20th centuries.

Information Desk
Stop by THE ATWOOD CAROUSEL for information about women's history and Women's History Month at SCSU.

Thursday, March 12, 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.
Women's History Performance
A patchwork of plays by and about women will be performed by theatre department students.

ATWOOD SUITE LOUNGE

Saturday, March 14, 4:30-8:00 p.m.
Women's Work, Women's Play
A fundraiser of the Stearns County Historical Society for the Women's Authors of Stearns County publications. Women will demonstrate crafts from pioneer days. Music, refreshments, and raffle. Admission tickets available at Byerly's, Cashwise, and Coborn's.

HERITAGE CENTER, ST. CLOUD

Monday, March 16, 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.
"A Patchwork of Many Lives"

- "A Patchwork of Many Lives" is a speech written by the National Women's History Month Project about the forty-two featured women in history for 1992. It will be performed by Peggy Anderson, SCSU speech communication major.
- The Women's Equality Group (WEG) celebrates Women's History Month with a portrayal of women in history.

ATWOOD SUITE LOUNGE

Tuesday, March 17, 12:00 - 2:00 p.m.
A History of Women in Music
Judy Gorman, noted artist and musician, will offer a historical overview of women and music, from ancient to contemporary times.

ATWOOD LITTLE THEATRE

Wednesday, March 18, Noon
"Women on Wednesday" series: A History of Birth Control
Women have been the partners responsible for NOT getting pregnant. Stacy Holbrook, education coordinator for the Family Planning Center, will discuss the history of contraceptives in the United States.

CIVIC ROOM, ATWOOD CENTER

CONCERT
Judy Gorman
TUESDAY, MARCH 17, 8:00 P.M.
Judy will entertain us with high intensity blues-rooted original music.

ATWOOD BRICKYARD

Co-sponsored by University Program Board, Women's Equality Group, American Studies/Interdisciplinary Studies, Women's Studies, Sigma Alpha Iota, History Department, and the Women's Center.

Wednesday, March 18, 7:30 p.m.
Violence Against Women: Early Modern European Witch Trials
Witch persecutions during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries were directed mainly against women. Meredith Medier, SCSU history professor, will address the gender issues involved in this phenomenon.

HERBERT-TASCA ROOM, ATWOOD CENTER

Thursday, March 19, 10:00 a.m. - Noon
Women's History Month Reception
Join us as we discuss women in history at SCSU and the history of the Women's Center. Pictorial displays from the Women's Equality Group, the Women's Center, and the SCSU Archives will be available. Light refreshments will be served.

CIVIC ROOM, COLEBUT HOUSE NORTH

Monday, March 23, 7:30 p.m.
Women's Westward Journey
Anne Webb, historian and faculty member of Metro State University, presents "Women's Westward Journey" highlighting women's voices from the Dakotas, Minnesota, and Iowa. Her discussion will include Native American history, the reasons women moved west, and the stories of their journeys.

CIVIC ROOM, ATWOOD CENTER

Tuesday, March 24, 7:30 p.m.
Women's Progress in Religion
Reverend Linda Geiling of United Ministries in Higher Education, SCSU; Reverend Kathy Hoffman of Faith Lutheran Church, Spicer, Minnesota; The Venerable

Elaine Marshall of St. Stephen Episcopal Church, Paynesville, Minnesota; and Sister Enid Smith of St. Scholastica Convent, St. Cloud, will share their stories, and will discuss the progress of (or lack of) women's roles in religion.

CIVIC ROOM, ATWOOD CENTER

Wednesday, March 25, Noon
"Women on Wednesday" series: History of Marriage
THINKING OF MARRIAGE? Pat Samuel, Director of Women's Studies, will discuss the changing institution of marriage, specifically how women's roles have changed, and yet, how much they have remained the same.

CIVIC ROOM, COLEBUT HOUSE NORTH

Friday and Sunday, March 27 and 29, 8:00 p.m.
Woman of Iron
Laren McKissick's portrayal of a pioneer woman from the Duluth area. This fact-based historical drama is based on the lives of the playwright's own ancestors. Directed by Lin Holder, theatre department.

ATWOOD CENTER, PERFORMING ARTS CENTER

For tickets, contact the ticket office, 255-2455.

Monday, March 30, 7:30 p.m.
Women Writing About Women
Julie Friericks and Terry Jaakkola, authors and historians, will discuss the joys and hardships of Central Minnesota women from the mid-1800s to the present. Their presentation will be based on their book about women in Stearns County history and will include some of the women's individual stories. Their book is a project of the Stearns County Historical Society.

CIVIC ROOM, ATWOOD CENTER

Women's History Month Sponsors: Women's Center, Women's Studies, Women's Equality Group, University Program Board, Theatre Department, History Department, American Studies/Interdisciplinary Studies, and Sigma Alpha Iota.

For further information, contact the Women's Center, Colebut House North. Phone: 255-4958.

All events are free and open to the public, unless otherwise noted.

Prepared by the Office of Public Relations and Publications, and by Printing Services. SCSU is an equal opportunity educator and employer.

National Women's History Month
Women's History, A Patchwork of Many Lives

ST. CLOUD STATE UNIVERSITY
MARCH, 1992